head coach rich roche '87

A 1987 Hobart graduate with a bachelor's degree in history, Rich Roche became the 15th head basketball coach in the College's history on Aug. 4, 1997. As an undergraduate, Roche was a four-year letter winner and team captain for the Statesmen's basketball team, receiving the Charles E. Love Memorial Award for scholarship, leadership, and all around value to his team.

Since his return, Roche has directed the steady improvement of a program that had just three winning seasons since 1978-79 prior to his arrival. His direction hit a high-water mark for the program last season, breaking the school record for wins in a season with a 20-8 mark, including an 11-3 record in conference play. In the UCAA Tournament, the Statesmen ran the table, claiming their first league title. The victory earned them a spot in the NCAA Tournament — another program first — while their record warranted a first round bye.

Through four seasons, Roche has a 47-56 overall record and the 2000 UCAA, RACA, NABC East Region, and BCANY Upstate Coach of the Year Awards. He ranks first among Hobart coaches in wins per season and is fifth in career wins and winning percentage. Roche has mentored three Regional All-Americans, three UCAA Players of the Year, and a UCAA Rookie of the Year.

Roche returned to his alma mater from Saint Anthony's High School where he taught history for eight years and coached the basketball team for six seasons. During this time, Roche rebuilt a tradition-rich program compiling an 80-64 record, produced 17 college players and reestablished the South Huntington, N.Y., school as a state Catholic power. In 1993, his Friars won the Long Island Catholic League Championship, and Roche earned Coach of the Year honors. In 1997, St. Anthony's made another trip to the league finals in a season that included a victory over national high school power Christ the King of New York City.

Roche earned a master's degree in education from Villanova University in 1994, and spent the 1993-94 season as an assistant coach to Steve Lappas. That season the Wildcats compiled a 20-12 record and won the NIT Championship at Madison Square Garden.

Prior to being named head coach at St. Anthony's, Roche spent single season stints as an assistant coach at SUNY-Farmingdale and New York Institute of Technology.

A native of Oceanside, N.Y., Roche resides in Geneva.

assistant coaches

ROB PISANELLI

Former Statesmen standout Rob Pisanelli '00 enters his first year as an assistant basketball coach.

Pisanelli started 90 consecutive games for Hobart, while averaging 16.6 ppg. He holds the school records for both field goals made (593) and attempted (1,328), and is second on Hobart's all-time scoring list with 1,647 points. In his four seasons, Pisanelli shot .447 from the floor and .367 from behind the arc, totaled 310 rebounds, 74 steals, and blocked 23 shots. He closed out his Statesmen career in style, garnering the UCAA's Player of the Year Award, first-team UCAA and RACA honors, as well as NABC first-team All-East status. The guard was also named a Columbia Multimedia first-team All-American and D3hoops.com All-America honorable mention.

During the fall of 2000, Pisanelli joined the VASDA USA Silver team, a traveling club team that plays exhibitions against college teams, where he played in eight of the team's nine games, starting three and averaging 8.1 ppg.

After wrapping up the VASDA schedule, Pisanelli joined the Brooklyn Kings of the U.S. Basketball League in the spring of 2001. He played in six games, averaging 5.3 ppg.

The Poughkeepsie native's primary responsibility will be recruiting.

DENNIS PYSNACK

Dennis Pysnack enters his 13th season as an assistant coach in the Hobart basketball program. He will play an integral role in scouting and local recruiting as well as in practice on a daily basis.

Pysnack, who began his career at Hobart one year after Head Coach Rich Roche graduated, has provided the program with stability and continuity.

A gifted clinician, Pysnack has been active in the area junior leagues for several years. He is a native of Seneca Falls, N.Y., and resides in Seneca Falls with his wife Trish.

CARL WENZEL

Carl Wenzel begins his first season as a collegiate assistant coach during the 2001-02 season. Wenzel joins the Statesmen with more than 30 years of experience as a basketball coach and player.

Wenzel has been a teacher in the Geneva City School District since 1975. He coached the boy's junior varsity basketball team from 1975-76 through 1979-80. For the past 21 seasons, he has guided the Panther's varsity basketball team to a 265-182 (.593) record. Under his leadership, Geneva won three consecutive Finger Lakes East Championships (1982-84). Wenzel was named the Section V Class AA Coach of the Year in 1982 and '83. He also led the Panthers to Sectional Championships in 1989 (Class B) and again in 1999 (Class BB).

A 1974 graduate of St. John Fisher College, Wenzel started three seasons for the Cardinals. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

He and his wife, Ann, and their three children live in Geneva.

director of athletics mike hanna '68

A 1968 graduate of Hobart, Mike Hanna became the College's athletics director in 1981. He has piloted the athletics program to new heights through unprecedented championships in lacrosse, to today's department-wide success.

Hanna's vision, along with the vision of his William Smith counterpart, has led to the construction of the Robert A. Bristol '31 Field House in 1989 and the Dr. Frank P. Smith '36 Squash Center in 1998. Additionally, the new millennium has seen considerable improvements to the campus's facilities: the 2001 Artificial Turf Stadium, John H. Cozzens, Jr. '41 Memorial Field, the Topichak Team Rooms in the Elliott

Varsity House, and the Hobart Hockey Varsity House at the Geneva Recreation Complex scheduled to open later this year.

An active member of the community, Hanna serves in a variety of civic positions. He's currently a member of the Policy Council for Geneva Head Start and is a past president of the Geneva Rotary Club. For more than 10 years he has co-chaired the Geneva Rotary Club Student Loan Program. Hanna is also a trustee for The Savings Bank of the Finger Lakes.

Hanna's first stop in his athletic career was in 1971-72 at Johns Hopkins University where he served as defensive coordinator in football and as an assistant lacrosse coach under the Blue Jays' legendary coach, Bob Scott. The following year Hanna joined the staff at the U.S. Naval Academy, serving as the offensive coordinator for the Midshipmen lacrosse program through the 1976 season. Hanna returned to his alma mater from Princeton University, where he served as head lacrosse coach from 1977 through 1981. He has been involved in college athletics since his discharge from the U.S. Army. He was an Army paratrooper and an officer in military intelligence, including a one-year tour as a military intelligence advisor in South Vietnam.

As a quarterback, Hanna broke all of Hobart's season and career passing records during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. A second-team All-American lacrosse attackman in 1968, Hanna finished second for the Statesmen in scoring that year with 35 goals and 35 assists. He co-captained both the football and lacrosse teams his senior year. During his senior year he was awarded the Francis L. "Babe" Kraus Award as Hobart's Athlete of the Year and was also presented the Judge Kane Award as MVP in lacrosse.

A past president of both the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association and the U.S. Lacrosse Coaches Association, Hanna chaired the Coaches Association Clinic and Convention Committee for 10 years and currently co-chairs the USILA Scholar All-American Committee. In 1981, he authored the book, Lacrosse: Skills and Strategies for the Athlete and Coach. The USILA recognized Hanna in 1985 with the Frenchy Julian Memorial Award for outstanding service to intercollegiate lacrosse.

Hanna resides in Geneva with his wife, Mary Anne, a second grade teacher at Geneva's West Street Elementary School. They have three children: Katie, information technology manager with Harris, Beach, & Wilcox in Rochester, N.Y.; Molly, a graduate of William Smith and a graduate student at Lesley University; and Matt, a senior at Johns Hopkins University.

ABOUT HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH colleges

Hobart and William Smith Colleges are private, coordinate, liberal arts colleges in Geneva, N.Y. Hobart College was founded in 1822, William Smith College in 1908. Hobart enrolls 863 men and William Smith 980 women. The full-time equivalent teaching faculty numbers 155 members, 98 percent of whom hold doctoral degrees.

The two colleges have the same faculty; men and women students attend classes together and use the same library and laboratories. Each college, however, awards its own degrees, has its own dean, and maintains its own student government and athletics programs.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

At the Colleges, the academic year is divided into two 15-week semesters. Students take four courses each term, eight per year, for either a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree. The academic program traditionally comprises four years.

Majors are available in American studies, anthropology, art, biology, biochemistry, chemistry, classics, comparative literature, computer science, economics, English, geoscience, Greek, history, Latin, mathematics, modern languages (French and Spanish), music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, religious studies, and sociology.

Individual majors may be developed in Asian studies, Africana/Latino studies, urban studies, and women's studies, among others. In addition, the Colleges offer programs leading to provisional certification in elementary and secondary education.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Hobart College Department of Athletics believes that intercollegiate athletics play a major role in the educational process, and strives to provide a challenging, meaningful, and exciting experience for student athletes. The Department accomplishes this mission by serving as teachers, counselors, leaders, and representatives of the College and by offering quality instruction, services, and athletics facilities while promoting a high level of sportsmanship and competition.

The coaching and support staffs place the highest value on:

- Commitment
- Integrity
- Loyalty
- Respect
- Teamwork

In carrying out its mission, the department will strengthen the ability of Hobart men to manage their lives and fulfill their potential as students, athletes, and citizens.

ATHLETICS PROGRAM

The Hobart Statesmen, whose colors are royal purple and orange, field intercollegiate teams in 11 sports, including football, soccer, crew, cross country, basketball, ice hockey, sailing, squash, tennis, golf, and lacrosse.

Hobart is a member of the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA), the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), and Divisions III and I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

2001-02 season outlook

The 2000-01 Hobart Statesmen wore out more than a couple of erasers rewriting the College's records book with the finest basketball campaign in the program's 91 seasons. Hobart broke the single season marks for wins (20), games played (28), winning percentage (.714), free throws attempted (800), and rebounds (1,159), while matching the school record for consecutive wins (8). The Statesmen tied for the UCAA lead with an 11-3 mark, and then knocked off Vassar, Hamilton, and Rensselaer to secure their first UCAA Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

For his leadership, Head Coach Rich Roche was named the NABC East Region, the BCANY, and UCAA Coach of the Year. Roche's Statesmen return four starters, including ECAC Upstate Player of the Year Joe Corbett, and nine letterwinners.

Here's how the Statesmen are shaping up by position:

BACKCOURT

Senior shooting guard Michael Gambino, 2001 All-UCAA honorable mention, is the Statesmen's outside threat having converted 43 percent of his three-point attempts over the past three seasons. He needs only 34 points to become just the 16th player in Hobart history to reach 1,000 career points. Senior Brian Schiele also returns to the starting lineup, after scoring a career-high 8.8 ppg and dishing out 113 assists a year ago. Junior Tim Lomot is expected to run the point. Lomot served as Kevin Leonardo's '01 understudy last season, recording a career-high 16 points in the NCAA Tournament against Brockport.

Sophomore Trevor McAndrew is a capable ball handler and a confident shooter expected to spell both Lomot and Schiele.

First-years Eric Jacks of Dorchester, Mass., and Zack Stelzner of Brooklyn, N.Y., give Coach Roche additional options at guard. With natural athletic ability and solid fundamentals, both Jacks and Stelzner will press for immediate playing time.

FRONTCOURT

Led by the first-team Regional All-American Corbett, the Statesmen feature one of the most feared frontcourts in Division III. The ECAC Upstate and UCAA Player of the Year broke the school records for free throw attempts and rebounds in a season, while

SETH SIDITSKY

Junior guard Tim Lomot is expected to step into the starting point guard role this season. He scored a career-high 16 points in the NCAA Tournament against Brockport.

2001-02 season outlook

leading the team in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage, and blocked shots. Power forward Daidek Herron provides Hobart with a potent 1-2 punch. The junior averaged nearly a double-double per game (14.5-9.0) while earning second-team All-UCAA honors. Both Corbett and Herron are also in striking distance of the 1,000-point mark. Corbett needs 206 points, less than half of his output last season, while Herron needs 380 after scoring 407 points in 2000-01.

Junior forward Rocco Walsh will be the first off the bench to spell the Statesmen's big guns. Walsh has developed into a quality reserve, averaging nearly 10 minutes per game a year ago. Junior Jeff Hill and first-year Joe Flacke of Schenectady, N.Y., should also see quality minutes off the bench.

SCHEDULE

Hobart enters the 2001-02 season ranked in the top-30 by DIII News, D3Hoops.com, and Street and Smith. The Statesmen open the campaign in the Kings Point Tip-Off Tournament with Fredonia, Goucher, and the host Mariners. The team will spend the next three weeks taking on New York State rivals, including the University of Rochester, Ithaca College, and Division I Colgate. Hobart closes out 2001 in Florida, playing in the Land of Magic Classic in Daytona Beach.

The Statesmen return to campus to begin their title defense on Jan. 11, facing the UCAA's highly competitive 14-game schedule.

Hobart boasts a veteran line up with a talented and deep crop of rookies that could return the Statesmen to the pinnacle of the UCAA and deliver Hobart's first NCAA Tournament victory.

“The Hobart basketball program is a ‘family’ in the truest sense of the word, and is the reason why my four years at Hobart were among the best of my life.”

—Jeff Brierley '91

Playing basketball at Hobart offered many opportunities. It provided me with the chance to travel to such places as Boston, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., and New York City. It also taught me discipline that I needed to succeed in life.”

—Dave Dence '92

My experiences as a member of the Hobart basketball team will be unforgettable. Playing basketball at Hobart taught me the importance of hard work, dedication, and discipline, not only as a basketball player but in the classroom as well.”

—Jamie Judd '93

“Through playing basketball, I have developed lifelong friendships with my teammates, as well as a sense of true fulfillment as a student athlete. Hobart basketball has played a very important role in my life as a student at the Colleges and has prepared me in many ways for the future”

—Jordan Denning '94

administration

MARK D. GEARAN President

Mark Gearan, bringing extensive experience in public service and a strong commitment to undergraduate liberal arts education and international studies, became Hobart College's 26th president and the 15th president of William Smith College in August 1999.

When named to that position by the Colleges' trustees, Gearan was serving as director of the U.S. Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., a position he assumed in 1995. His resignation from that post to lead the Colleges garnered not only national headlines, but a flood of personal testimonials and tributes. President Bill Clinton, to whom Gearan reported as Peace Corps director, said, "Mark is gifted, humane, a leader, and deeply committed to the education of young people. I know that he will bring great vision to the Colleges as they enter the next century."

Gearan is one of the country's youngest presidents of a major undergraduate institution. He has extensive credentials in public policy and service including having served at the White House as Assistant to the President and Director of Communications, as well as Deputy Chief of Staff. During the 1992 presidential campaign, he was Vice President Gore's campaign manager and then Deputy Director of President-elect Clinton's transition team.

A native of Gardner, Mass., Gearan earned a bachelor's degree in government cum laude at Harvard University and a law degree from Georgetown University. He's the recipient of 12 honorary degrees. Gearan's writings have been published extensively, including pieces in the Boston Globe, the Miami Herald, and the San Francisco Examiner.

He is married to Mary Herlihy Gearan, and they have two daughters.

CLARENCE E. BUTLER Hobart College Dean

Clarence Butler became dean of Hobart College in July, 1998. Butler came to Hobart in 1979, after serving on the faculties at Brown University and Dartmouth College. He first served as assistant dean, and was named senior associate dean of Hobart in 1983, after serving as acting dean of the College for two years.

Butler has been very active at the College since his arrival, serving on many committees, including the Committee on Standards, the Individual Major Committee, and the President's Advisory Council. Aside from his administrative duties, Butler has taught German part-time and, as an ordained minister, has at times served the local community in that capacity as well.

Butler received a bachelor's degree and a doctorate from Washington University in St. Louis, a master's degree from the University of Kansas, and the B.D. from the Episcopal Theological School. He also received a language diploma from the University of Stockholm in Sweden. He is a former Fulbright Scholar as well as a DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Scholar.

He has two daughters.
