

ABOUT HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGES

Hobart and William Smith are prestigious liberal arts colleges offering an array of imaginative, largely interdisciplinary degree programs to approximately 1,800 undergraduate students.

Like most small, residential, liberal arts colleges, Hobart and William Smith affords opportunities for rich one-to-one interaction with teaching faculty and instruction in small classes, as well as for robust academic choices. The Colleges' emphasis on inter-disciplinary study imbues not only degree choices, but the construction of most individual classes.

In addition, Hobart and William Smith enjoy particular distinction in the areas of internationalism and public service. They offer a rich array of study-abroad programs and maintain a public service office which, working with the faculty, creates opportunities for co-curricular volunteerism and helps integrate "service-learning" into the curriculum.

Hobart and William Smith are located in Geneva, N.Y., a small city (population roughly 14,000) located in the heart of New York state's picturesque and historic Finger Lakes Region. The Colleges themselves sit on a spectacular 180-acre campus along the western shore of Seneca Lake. The William F. Scandling, one of only two research vessels owned and used by undergraduate institutions, allows students to use the lake as an area of study.

The dual identity of the Colleges — Hobart and William Smith — is a product of history. Hobart College was founded in 1822 by an Episcopal bishop as a college for men. (One notable - Leaders in gender studies, HWS has offered women's studies since the mid-1960s and men's studies courses since 1986.

- Opportunities for undergraduate research have led to a number of prestigious grants and awards for HWS students, among them the nationally known and highly competitive Merck and Goldwater Scholarships.
- The "HWS 2005" strategic plan led to the construction of Stern Hall, a new academic building. Additional capital projects include a center for career and public service and new residential housing.

exception was Elizabeth Blackwell, the nation's first female physician, who graduated in 1849 from the since-departed medical school.) In 1908 nurseryman William Smith established the women's college affiliated with Hobart. Today, the Colleges share facilities, faculty, and curriculum, while maintaining separate student governments, deans, annual traditions, and athletics programs, creating a best-of-both-worlds approach to gender-specific concerns.

MARK D. GEARAN

President of Hobart and William Smith

Mark D. Gearan, bringing extensive experience in public service and a strong commitment to undergraduate liberal arts education and international studies, became Hobart College's 26th president and the 15th president of William Smith College in August 1999.

When named to that position by the Colleges' trustees, Gearan was serving as director of the U.S. Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., a position he assumed in 1995. His resignation from that post to lead the Colleges garnered not only national headlines, but a flood of personal testimonials and tributes. President Bill Clinton, to whom Gearan reported as Peace Corps director, said, "Mark is gifted, humane, a leader, and deeply committed to the education of young people. I know that he will bring great vision to the Colleges as they enter the next century."

In his four years at Hobart and William Smith, Gearan has created a master plan for the Colleges' future, HWS 2005; initiated the President's Forum Speakers Series, which has brought many notable speakers to campus; and enlivened the spirit of public service on campus.

Gearan has extensive credentials in public policy and service including having served at the White House as Assistant to the President, Director of Communications, and Deputy Chief of Staff.

A native of Gardner, Mass., Gearan earned his B.A. in government cum laude at Harvard University and his law degree from Georgetown University. He is the recipient of 12 honorary degrees. Gearan's writings have been published extensively, including pieces in the Boston Globe, the Miami Herald, and the San Francisco Examiner.

He is married to Mary Herlihy Gearan, and they have two daughters, Madeleine and Kathleen.

CLARENCE E. BUTLER

Dean of Hobart College

Clarence E. Butler became dean of Hobart College in July, 1998. Butler came to Hobart College in 1979, after serving on the faculties at Brown University and Dartmouth College. He first served as assistant dean, and was named senior associate dean of Hobart in 1983, after serving as acting dean of the College from 1982 until 1983.

Butler has been very active at the College since his arrival, serving on many committees, including the Committee on Standards, the Individual Major Committee, and the President's Advisory Council. Aside from his administrative duties, Butler has taught German part-time and, as an ordained minister, has at times served the local community in that capacity as well.

Butler's legacy to Hobart will undoubtedly be his commitment to bringing this history and heritage of Hobart College to current students through such measures as his initiation of the Hobart Heritage Series and his reinstatement of traditions nearly lost.

Butler received a bachelor's degree and a doctorate degree from Washington University in St. Louis, a master's degree from the University of Kansas, and a bachelor of sacred theology degree from the Episcopal Theological School. He also received a language diploma from the University of Stockholm in Sweden. He is a former Fulbright Scholar as well as a DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Scholar.

He has two daughters, Britta and Kirsten.

MICHAEL J. HANNA

Director of Hobart Athletics

A 1968 graduate of Hobart, Mike Hanna became the College's athletics director in 1981. He has piloted the athletics program to new heights through unprecedented championships in lacrosse, to today's department-wide success.

In an effort to enhance Hobart student-athletes' leadership skills both on and off the field, Hanna started the Napier Leadership Seminar. Now in its seventh year, the participants meet throughout the academic year to discuss leadership issues and to learn from featured speakers such as University of Florida Director of Athletics Jeremy Foley '74 and New York Giants Vice President for Marketing Rusty Hawley '79.

An active member of the community, Hanna has served in a variety of civic positions. Currently, he's assisting Ontario ARC with their $1.5 million capital campaign—Building for a Brighter Future—to enhance the agency's capacity for assisting those with developmental disabilities.

Hanna has been involved in college athletics, including stops at Johns Hopkins, Navy, and Princeton, since his discharge from the U.S. Army. He was an Army paratrooper and an officer in military intelligence, including a tour as a military intelligence advisor in South Vietnam.

As a quarterback, Hanna broke all of Hobart's season and career passing records. He co-captained both the football and lacrosse teams and earned the Francis L. "Babe" Kraus Award as Hobart's Athlete of the Year during his senior year.

Hanna resides in Geneva with his wife, Mary Anne, a second grade teacher at Geneva's West Street Elementary School. They have three children: Katie, an agent in the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Molly WS'99, a special education teacher in Hartford, Conn.; and Matt, a teacher and coach at St. Paul's School in Baltimore.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

BOSWELL FIELD

One of the finest and best-kept natural grass athletic fields in New York State, Boswell Field is home to Hobart's football and lacrosse teams. Taking in a game at Boswell Field is a wonderful experience for the athlete and the spectator.

The Boz received its first "face lift" in 2003, when the entire playing surface was replaced by R.M. Landscape of Rochester.

Boswell Field is named for Charles Partridge Boswell, an 1860 graduate of Hobart, whose generosity made it possible for the Colleges to purchase the land on which the field was originally built. Initially, Boswell Field was located where the Colleges' Warren Hunting Smith Library now stands. It was moved to its present location in 1974.

Boswell Field features seating for 5,000 and is often filled to standing-room-only.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

McCOOEY FIELD

Officially opened with an 11-9 win over Army on March 10, 2001, McCooey Field is one of the premier artificial surface facilities in the Northeast. The facility was made possible by a lead naming gift from the family of Herbert J. McCooey Sr., a former Wall Street broker who sent five of his seven children to the Colleges.

AstroTurf 12 was selected as the surface and the facility includes seating for 1,500 spectators with lawn seating and standing room for several hundred more. The stadium is the Colleges' first lighted athletic field and includes a press box and a new scoreboard. It serves all of the Colleges' field teams and the intramurals program.

SPORT & RECREATION CENTER

Dedicated on October 14, 1989, the opening of the Hobart and William Smith Sport and Recreation Center ushered in a new era for athletes and non-athletes alike. The 83,000-square-foot Robert A. Bristol Field House allows for full-field training throughout the year, while the Elliott Varsity House provides the facility with a weight room, racquetball courts, a climbing wall, and locker rooms.
