

THE LIBERTY LEAGUE

The Liberty League sponsors championships in 24 sports. The member institutions of the league place the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience and on the successful completion of its student-athletes' academic programs. The member institutions seek to establish and maintain an environment in which a student-athlete's athletic activities are conducted as an integral part of the educational experience.

Originally founded as the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association in 1995, the conference was renamed the Liberty League during the summer of 2004. The new league includes founding members Clarkson University, Hamilton College, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, the University of Rochester, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, St. Lawrence University, Skidmore College, and Union College. Vassar College became a full member of the league during the 2000-01 academic year. The U.S. Coast Guard Academy, the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, and Worcester Polytechnic Institute join the Liberty League during the 2004-05 academic year as associate members in football only.

"Our conference has evolved dramatically over the past 10 years and we felt the timing was appropriate for this change," League President and St. Lawrence Athletics Director Margaret Strait said. "The new name and logo project a positive image for institutions that have worked together to provide a very meaningful educational experience for thousands of student-athletes.

"They will help us tell our success story and better reflect who we are as a league. We have stood for tradition and excellence and we're proud of what we have established."

During the 2003-04 academic year, the member institutions sent 17 teams in 14 sports to their respective NCAA Tournaments, as well as dozens of individual student-athletes to NCAA Championship events in cross country, swimming and diving, and tennis.

Among the best in the nation in the classroom as well, Liberty League student-athletes garnered five 2003-04 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards, including Craig Swanson '04, and 37 2003-04 CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, including Chris Purtell '05.

GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS

The 1936 football team, the first to be called "Statesmen."

THE STATESMEN NICKNAME

Sports have been played at the College since the 1860s and for the first 70-plus years Hobart went without a moniker. Now Hobart College is blessed with an unusual and unique nickname, "The Statesmen."

It has been a mystery to most how Hobart became known as the Statesmen, but the origins of Hobart's nickname came innocently enough. The Hobart football team was playing the opening game of the 1936 football season on Sept. 26, at Amherst College. The following day, The New York Times published a story describing the scoreless tie that occurred between the two teams. The article begins:

"The statesmen from Geneva received a lucky break..."

—Unknown Author
New York Times, Sept. 27, 1936

"In the Pratt Field opener today, Hobart and Amherst battled to a scoreless tie before a crowd of 3,000. The defensive play of both teams was superb. Hobart recorded eight first downs to Amherst's nine.

"The statesmen from Geneva received a lucky break in the first period when Wanzo fumbled and Benjamin recovered on Amherst's 40-yard line."

The author of the story referred to Hobart as the statesmen one final time, concluding the story with:

"Snowball and Pagnotta stood out for Amherst, while Bowling and Wright excelled for the statesmen."

And with these two references, Hobart College was given its nickname.

Aged To Perfection — The 50th Anniversary Of The 1954 Undefeated Team

It was a magical year for the Hobart football team and, 50 years later, it's still looked upon as one of the finest in the 113-year history of the program. Led by Coach Eddie Tryon and captain Bill Morton, the Statesmen were a perfect 8-0.

Hobart got things rolling in the opener, scoring six touchdowns in a 40-6 drubbing of Wagner. A week later, the Statesmen rode Morton's 189 rushing yards and three TDs, to a 45-0 win over Buffalo. The pattern continued as Hobart rattled off two more wins, beating Kenyon and Allegheny.

Hobart faced its first stiff challenge when Union paid a visit to campus. The Statesmen came from behind twice to eclipse the Dutchmen 32-21.

With an undefeated season in sight, halfback Dick

Turoski helped Hobart to win No. 6 with a pair of TDs in the fourth quarter to top St. Lawrence, 20-6.

After pushing its record to 7-0 a week later with a 42-7 victory over Hamilton, the stage was set for a showdown between Hobart and Alfred.

With a crowd of 4,700 on hand, the teams battled until the final whistle with the Statesmen eking out a 13-6 win. The Saxons held the edge in total yardage, but Walt Harrison's 71-yard touchdown run in the third quarter clinched the victory.

Accolades came in bunches, as Morton was named to the Little All-America second-team and Don Bruno and Dick McKnight earned honorable mention. Turoski led all scorers in the East with 90 points on the season.
