* Liberty League game

Founded in 1995 as the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association, the conference was renamed the Liberty League prior to the start of the 2004-05 academic year. The nine member institutions chose the new moniker and logos to better reflect the growth of the conference, which welcomed associate football members Merchant Marine and WPI in 2004. Beginning in 2007, Susquehanna will join the conference as an associate member in football. Hobart also competes in the Liberty League in basketball, crew, cross country, golf, soccer, squash, and tennis.

Education

Slippery Rock University, B.S., 1983

After a decade as Hobart’s head coach and nearly two decades of service to the Colleges, Mike Cragg has established the Statesmen as one of the premier football programs in the region. He is Hobart’s all-time leader in career wins and wins per season and is second in winning percentage and games coached.

Cragg enters his 12th season in charge of the Hobart football team with a 73-37 (.664) career record that includes all five of Hobart’s postseason appearances. His Statesmen have earned a postseason bid in five of the past six seasons, including back-to-back NCAA regional semifinal appearances. Under his direction, Hobart has finished atop the Liberty League five times, including three of the past four seasons.

In 2005, the Statesmen posted a 9-2 record, marking the 10th consecutive season at .500 or above. The streak bests the longest run of sustained success produced by teams led by Tryon (1951-58) and Vincent Welch (1921-28). The nine wins matches the program record for wins in a season established by Hobart’s 1896 and 2004 squads.

Last season, Hobart led the Liberty League in turnover margin, scoring defense, rushing defense, punt returns, pass efficiency, and pass efficiency defense, while raking in the top 30 in the nation in turnover margin (21st) and scoring defense (16.5 ppg). Cragg’s charges cleaned up in the postseason accolades, collecting 14 All-Liberty League honors and the Defensive Player of the Year Award (Tony Clemente ’06).

Cragg, who has served as the team’s defensive coordinator since 1991, directed the 2000 Statesmen into the NCAA records book. The Hobart secondary, aided by a relentless pass rush, broke the NCAA Division III record for lowest pass completion percentage allowed. Hobart opponents were successful on just 31.3 percent (79-of-252) of their pass attempts, eclipsing the old mark, 33.5, set by Plymouth State in 1987. At the close of the regular season, Cragg’s defense ranked first in the nation in pass efficiency defense, sixth in scoring defense, eighth in turnover margin, and 12th in total defense.

Cragg has mentored several All-Americans, including consensus All-Americans Dave Russell ’98 and Alex Bell ’05. Several Statesmen have gone on to play football professionally, including Bell who recently signed with the New York Giants as a free agent.

Named the 23rd head coach of the Hobart football program in January of 1995, Cragg is one of the veteran members of the Statesmen family, joining the football staff in 1986. He also served as the head coach of the tennis team for three seasons, compiling an overall record of 36-10 and three conference championships.

Cragg came to Hobart after serving as the head coach of the varsity football program at Corry High School in Corry, Pa. He led Corry to a third-place finish in the Erie County League in his first year, a first-ever appearance in the District X Playoffs in 1986, and was named Coach of the Year.

A 1983 graduate of Slippery Rock University with a bachelor’s degree in health and physical education, Cragg was a two-year letterwinner for the Rock at free safety and linebacker. He still owns a share of the school’s single game interception record (3 vs. Edinboro, 1980). His senior season was short-circuited by a knee injury, so he got an early jump on his coaching career, assisting the Slippery Rock staff with the defensive backs.

Cragg and his wife, Holley, live in Geneva with their two children, Michael and Kristen Alexandria.
Assistant Coaches

Kevin DeWall ’00
Offensive Coordinator
Offensive Line Coach

Now in his seventh season on the Hobart sideline, Kevin DeWall is entering his fourth season as the offensive coordinator. Traditionally, a program that relied heavily on its defense, DeWall has transformed Hobart into an offensive juggernaut.

Last season, DeWall’s balanced offense set team records for passing yards (2,420) and yards per pass (8.26) in a season. The Statesmen also produced the second highest numbers in total offense (4,421), points (314), touchdowns (43), and extra points (37), while leading the Liberty League passing efficiency (141.3).

As a mentor to the offensive line, DeWall oversaw the development of three All-Liberty League picks, first-teamer Mike DePersis, second-teamer Nino Giambrone, and honorable mention Phill Perkins.

During his first three seasons on staff, DeWall coached the defensive backs.

While earning a bachelor’s degree in biology (pre-med) and education, DeWall was an attackman on Hobart’s Division I lacrosse team and led the defense at free safety for the football team. He helped the lacrosse program to two NCAA Tournament appearances and the 2000 Patriot League title and aided the football program’s ascent towards the pinnacle of Division III.

A native of nearby Waterloo, DeWall was the 2000 Patriot League Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District Team.

Randy Grenier
Special Teams Coordinator
Quarterbacks Coach

Randy Grenier begins his 16th year on the Hobart football staff. He will serve as the special teams coordinator and mentor the quarterbacks this season.

Under Grenier’s tutelage, Hobart’s quarterbacks have rewritten the school’s records books. Craig Swanson ’04, a finalist for the Gagliardi Trophy (Division III Player of the Year), surpassed most of the schools benchmarks, graduating with every major game, season, and career mark.

The latest Statesmen Top Gun is returning starter Shawn Mizro ’07. In 2004, the Newark, N.Y., native claimed the season standards for passing yards, passing touchdowns, and pass efficiency rating. Last season, Mizro continued to ink his name in Hobart lore, matching Swanson’s career passing touchdown mark and closing in on the career marks for passing yards and pass efficiency rating.

Prior to his arrival at Hobart, Grenier served as the head coach at Geneva High School from 1984 through 1989, guiding the Panthers to a Section V runner-up finish in 1985. A teacher in the Geneva Public School system, he coached the Eddie Meath All-Star Football Game three times.

Accomplished and multifaceted, Manley has coached basketball, baseball, hockey, lacrosse, track, and softball.

Manley graduated from SUNY-Brockport with a bachelor’s degree in physical education. He lives with his wife, Rita, and their four children in Keuka Park.
Assistant Coaches

Terry Muffley
Defensive Line Coach

Terry Muffley is entering his eighth season as Hobart’s defensive line coach. Over the past seven seasons, he has overseen the development of 12 all-conference linemen.

In 2005, Muffley’s charges made life miserable for running backs, limiting opponent’s to a Liberty League low 111.9 rushing yards per game.

In addition to his responsibilities with the football team, Muffley also serves as a volunteer assistant coach for Hobart’s Division I lacrosse team.

A veteran high school coach, Muffley was a fixture on the Geneva High School sidelines for more than two decades, assisting the Panthers’ football team to two league titles and the lacrosse team to three Section V Championships.

Muffley earned a bachelor’s degree from East Stroudsburg University.

A veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps with service in Vietnam, Muffley lives in Geneva with his wife, Cindy. They have two grown children, Patrick and Bess.

Aaron Backhaus ’00
Linebackers Coach

Aaron Backhaus ’00 returns for his third season on the Hobart sidelines as the linebackers coach. During his two seasons, seven of his Statesmen have earned All-Liberty League recognition, including 2005 Defensive Player of the Year Tony Clemente ’06.

As a player, Backhaus was a four-year starter at inside linebacker. The four-time All-Liberty League pick left the gridiron with 279 career tackles and six interceptions. He led the Statesmen with a career-high 98 tackles as a first-year.

A versatile athlete, Backhaus also filled in at place kicker in 1998, converting 12-of-15 point after tries.

Earning a bachelor’s degree from Hobart in psychology in 2000, Backhaus went on to complete a master’s degree in education at Alfred University.

In addition to his coaching duties, Backhaus is a counselor at the Geneva Middle School.

Scott Yoder ’01
Defensive Backs Coach

Scott Yoder is back for his sixth season as an assistant coach. The 2001 graduate of Hobart switched assignments last season, moving from receivers to defensive backs.

Last season, his secondary led the Liberty League and ranked 47th in the nation in pass efficiency defense. All three of Hobart’s starters earned a spot on the All-Liberty League teams.

In 2004, Yoder mentored a talented and deep corps of receivers, including two All-Liberty League selections. Under his direction, Dan Suozzi ’05 broke the Hobart career records for receptions, yards, and receiving touchdowns.

A reliable target himself, Yoder finished his career with 108 receptions for 1,361 yards. Following the 2000 season, he earned first-team accolades from the ECAC and the Liberty League.

The economics major was also a member of the Division I Hobart lacrosse team. Yoder helped guide the Statesmen to the 2000 Patriot League Championship and the program’s 23rd NCAA post-season appearance.

Brian Sheehan
Receivers Coach

The newest member of the Hobart football coaching staff is Brian Sheehan. The native of Rocky River, Ohio, is returning for his second season working with the receivers.

Sheehan joined the Statesmen following two seasons as an assistant coach at Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio. With the ‘Berg, he instructed the defensive ends in 2003 and moved over to the other side of the ball to coach the wide receivers and returners in 2004.

Sheehan also served as the junior varsity offensive coordinator, video coordinator, study table supervisor, and assistant strength and conditioning coach at Heidelberg. In 2005, he earned a master’s degree in education from Heidelberg.

A 2003 graduate of Marietta College, Sheehan was a three-year starter at tight end and a team captain in 2002 for the Pioneers. A versatile student-athlete, Sheehan also started on both sides of the ball during his senior season (defensive end).

Sheehan earned bachelor’s degrees in psychology and management from Marietta in 2003.

2005 starters in CAPS
Since the start of the 2000 season, the Hobart football program has won more than 75 percent of its contests (47-15), reached the postseason five times (4 NCAA Playoffs, 1 ECAC Bowl), and firmly entrenched itself as a regional football power.

The 2005 Statesmen won seven straight games and climbed as high as No. 11 in the American Football Coaches Association poll before suffering their only loss of the regular season. Hobart bounced back to win its regular season finale and earn an at-large bid to the NCAA Playoffs.

For the second straight season, the Statesmen won their NCAA opener, defeating SUNY Cortland on Boswell Field, 23-22. But unlike the 2004 squad that was overmatched in a 45-14 loss at East Region top-seed Rowan, Hobart’s 2005 club brought the fight to Delaware Valley, pushing the Aggies to the edge, before falling 21-14.

The disappointing loss taught the team a very important lesson: Not only did the Statesmen belong in the playoffs, but they were capable of competing with the best teams in the region.

This season, Hobart wants to carry that lesson through the East Region all the way to Stagg Bowl XXXIV in Salem, Va.

Head Coach Mike Cragg (73-37) will have a veteran team under his command. The Statesmen will welcome back 39 lettermen, including 15 starters (10 on offense, 5 defense). Despite the bevy of returning talent and another strong recruiting class, the 12th-year boss knows Hobart’s regular season schedule is loaded with teams capable of ending the Statesmen’s Stagg Bowl quest.

For the 15th consecutive season, the Statesmen will kickoff the campaign with Dickinson (Sept. 9, Boswell Field). A week later, Hobart will travel to William Paterson for its first gridiron battle with the Pioneers.

The Statesmen open their 12th season in the Liberty League at Rensselaer. Hobart has taken four in a row from the Engineers, but they return nearly everyone from a squad that pushed the Statesmen to the brink (56-48, 3OT).

Hobart returns home on Sept. 30, to face WPI, but then heads out on the road for the month of October. Following an off week, the Statesmen visit Merchant Marine, St. Lawrence, and Alfred. Any one of the three could be a stumbling block.

Merchant Marine is very tough at home as evidenced by the Mariners’ 23-17 overtime loss to Union last season; the Saints have lost 14 straight to Hobart, but nearly ended the streak in 2005 (a 13-9 loss on Boswell); and Alfred, which returns to the schedule after a two-year absence, is coming off a 9-2 season and an ECAC Bowl title.

While the final two regular season games are at home, that doesn’t mean things get any easier. Hobart will host Union on Nov. 4. The Statesmen (ranked as high as 11th in preseason polls) and the Dutchmen (10th) combined have claimed the Liberty League Championship eight times.

Hobart will close the regular season with its closest and oldest rival, Rochester. The Statesmen and Yellowjackets will square off for the 99th time in a series that dates back to 1892.

To ensure a fifth consecutive postseason berth, the Statesmen will need to rack up a 10th consecutive winning season, a string of success unmatched in the first century of Hobart football.

Here’s how the Statesmen are shaping up, position-by-position:

QUARTERBACK
Senior Shawn Mizro will run the offense for the third straight season. The two-time first-team All-Liberty League pick has thrown for 4,407 yards and 47 touchdowns.

A two-time All-Liberty League selection, quarterback Shawn Mizro has thrown for 4,407 yards and 47 touchdowns in his career.

offense for the third straight season. The two-time first-team All-Liberty League pick has thrown for 4,407 yards and 47 touchdowns. He’s on-par to break every major career passing mark beginning with TD passes, a record he currently shares with Craig Swanson ’04.

The only question is who will back Mizro up?

Hobart doesn’t return a single quarterback who has thrown a pass during a Hobart game other than Mizro. Junior transfer Andrew Strom (Novato, Calif.), sophomore Rich Doyle, and first-year PJ Overdorf (Troy, N.Y.) will battle for the No. 2 spot.

Strom (5-11, 185), based on his athleticism, has the edge for the No. 2 job. He averaged more than 200 yards of total offense per game and sported a 135.6 pass efficiency rating last season at San Francisco Community College. Doyle (6-foot-1, 215 lbs.) is right on his heels, having spent a full year learning Hobart’s offense. Overdorf (6-3, 185), while a neophyte to the college game, has big time long-range potential after leading Averill Park High School to back-to-back Class A Division I Championships.

RUNNING BACK
Senior All-American Doug Blakowski

A two-time All-American Doug Blakowski rushed for 1,364 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2005.
made people stand up and take notice last season, his first as a starter. With an explosive first step, he produced the third highest single season rushing total in Hobart history, amassing 1,364 yards and 17 touchdowns, leading the Liberty League with a 5.8 yards per carry average. Blakowski broke away for eight touchdown runs of 50 yards or more while matching the Statesmen season mark for 100-yard rushing games (9). Look for him to get 20-25 carries per game and fashion another spectacular campaign.

Sophomore Anthony Hobaica is Blakowski’s able backup. The Utica, N.Y., native is quick and elusive and may earn a few extra carries this season after making quality gains a year ago (4.6 yds/att).

Junior Don Gilardi could push for some of Hobaica’s touches. He had just seven carries last season, but took one of them 55 yards for a touchdown against Franklin & Marshall.

First-year Rob Nieves (Rye, N.Y.) could work his way into some playing time. At 5-foot-11, 210 pounds, he’s the biggest of the four backs and more of a threat to take on potential tacklers rather than evade them.

FULLBACK

With senior Chris Whipple and junior Dan Spinella returning, the Statesmen have two quality blockers who will share time in the backfield. They are similar athletes, capable of blocking inside or outside and both are threats out of the backfield. While neither player will have a lot of opportunities to touch the football (172 combined career yards), they offer an overlooked outlet for Mizro as opponents scramble to defend against Blakowski and a fleet of speedy receivers.

WIDE RECEIVER

Speaking of receivers, Hobart will feature, arguably, the deepest group of wideouts in the Liberty League, including four who caught 13 passes or more in 2005 and two who completed passes. The group will have to replace the lone offensive loss to graduation, Colby Feane, but there will be no shortage of volunteers willing to take up the slack to account for his 19 receptions.

Junior James Wright (35 rec., 554 yds., 3 TD), junior Steve Sorhaindo (33, 529, 6), and sophomore Ryan LiDrazzah (28, 476, 4) will be Mizro’s primary targets. While all three ranked in the top five in the Liberty League in yards per catch, none of them was listed in the top five in total yards or receptions because Hobart runs such a balanced offense.

Wright is the possession receiver of the bunch. He runs good routes, does a great job of catching the ball, and is tough enough to fight for the first down. Wright also showed off his arm last season, completing 75 percent of his throws (3 of 4) for 126 yards and a touchdown.

Sorhaindo and LiDrazzah are playmakers. Get them the ball in the open field and it’s highlights at 11. They stretch the defense, opening up things for Wright and Blakowski on mid- and short-range routes.

Seniors Nick Dyson and Kent Thorpe, sophomore Zach Schulz, and first-year Tyler Vincent (Baldwinsville, N.Y.) will battle behind the big three for playing time. Dyson is a big target (6-2, 200) with the athleticism to catch or throw the pass (1 rec., 24 yds., 1 comp., 46 yds.). Thorpe is a coach’s dream, doing whatever he’s asked with a passion. Whether it’s catching 13 passes for 116 yards or blowing up return men on special teams (31 career tkls.), he does it full throttle. Vincent (6-2, 195) enjoyed a strong preseason camp, while Schulz is the sleeper of the bunch. Slowed by injury, the coaches believe the 6-foot-2, 180-pounder could surpass his veteran teammates on the two-deep by season’s end.

TIGHT END

Seniors Kyle Martin and Ryan McWalter give Hobart two quality tight ends. Martin (6-2, 245) is a strong blocker with solid hands. A converted quarterback, McWalter brings an added knowledge and athleticism to the tight end position. Last season, both student-athletes made crucial plays in Hobart’s triple overtime win against Rensselaer. Martin scored the Statesmen’s first overtime touchdown and McWalter set up the game-winner with a 24-yard reception to the 1 yard line.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Hobart returns all five starters, including three All-Liberty League picks, to its offensive line after helping break the Hobart season record for passing yards (2,420) and producing the second highest

Senior tackle Mike DePersis, a 2005 first-team All-Liberty League pick, will anchor Hobart’s offensive line, which returns all five starters.
Season Outlook

Junior Phill Perkins (6-3, 265) will protect Mizro’s blind side at left tackle, while senior Mike DePersis (6-1, 260) will man the right side. Perkins played his way into shape last season, but came into camp in better shape this year, while All-Liberty League first-teamer DePersis is the team’s best pass blocker.

At left guard, second-team All-Liberty League pick senior Nino Giambrone (6-1, 280), the line’s strongest, most consistent blocker, is slimmed down which should help with his balky knees that have slowed him throughout his career. The other guard will be manned by senior Brian Ohman (6-3, 275).

The center of the line should be anchored by sophomore Mike Condon (6-2, 265). A smart lineman, he’s capable of playing all five positions.

DEFENSIVE END

Defensive end was a spot the coaching staff felt didn’t meet expectations in 2005. The Statesmen return starters on both ends of the defensive line. Senior Andy Purdie, a three-year starter, will handle the strong side, while junior Jim Drury will start for the second straight year on the weak side.

Purdie entered preseason camp in the best shape of his career after working out in the weight room for countless hours during the offseason. He posted career-highs in tackles (37), tackles for a loss (6.5), and sacks (4.5, third on the team) in 2005, and is poised to build on those numbers.

Drury produced 28 tackles, including five for a loss, notched an interception, and recovered two fumbles in his first season as a starter.

They will be pushed from Day 1 by a pair of first-years who could break into the starting line up.

Brandon Card (Baldwinsville, N.Y.) was an All-Central New York pick by the Post-Standard and a Class AA All-Star after averaging eight tackles per game for the Bees at linebacker in 2005, while Kwame Lovell (Schenectady, N.Y.), a native of Trinidad and Tobago, possesses an exciting combination of strength and speed.

Right behind them is sophomore Alex Williams and first-year Tony Guidetti (Queensbury, N.Y.). Williams was injured for a good deal of the 2005 season, but the coaches are still up beat about his potential, while Guidetti is a big (6-1, 250) run stuffer.

Sophomores Micah Coger and DeWayne Smith (Holliston, Mass.), a transfer from New Hampshire, will serve as the back ups. Both players are devastating tacklers who pack deceptive power in compact frames.

Sophomore Ryan Aruck gave Hobart fans a lot to smile about in 2005 with 56 tackles against the run and pass.

Senior David Tivin will provide depth in the middle.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

Hobart has big shoes to fill at the strong side outside linebacker position. Jimmy Gradis recorded 249 career tackles, including a team-high 76 last season on his way to All-Liberty League honors.

Senior captain Nolan Robinson, a three-year starter, will move from the weak side to fill this void. He is the very definition of a student-athlete: a standout in the classroom and on the gridiron. Robinson is one of only two players on the roster to boast more than 100 career tackles (171, Jeff Sanders with 113, is the other).

On the weak side, senior Evan Hoffman has the inside track. A special teams contributor, he made 16 tackles in 2005. His time at linebacker was limited by the exceptional talent on the roster ahead of him, but 2006 is his time to shine.

Sophomores Micah Coger and DeWayne Smith (Holliston, Mass.), a transfer from New Hampshire, will serve as the back ups. Both players are devastating tacklers who pack deceptive power in compact frames.

First-year Ryan Robinson (Johnson
INSIDE LINEBACKER

Two-time Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year Tony Clemente leaves an enormous void at strong side inside linebacker. Simply put, no one on this year’s roster is ready to take his place.

That said, junior Jeff Sanders is the man who will be tasked with doing just that. The second-year starter was fourth on the team in tackles last season, despite missing the NCAA Tournament due to injury. He registered 53 tackles and his first interception which ended St. Lawrence’s upset hopes.

The weak side job is up for grabs.
Senior Tyler Mason and sophomores Matt Duliba, Justin Hager, and Tony Siravo will figure in the mix. Hager had the most success last season, recording 26 tackles and an interception, stepping into the starting line up when Sanders was injured.

Mason has been the top back up in the middle for the past two seasons, spelling Clemente and Sanders. Duliba is a jack-of-all-trades who came to Hobart as a quarterback, played tight end and special teams last year and agreed to move to linebacker this year. Siravo is a big, strong backer who excels against the run.

CORNERBACK

The biggest questions on defense lie in the secondary. Hobart graduated all three starters: cornerbacks Jamie Anderson (126 career tackles, 13 INT) and Dyshawn Washington (130, 9) and free safety Ryan Smith (117, 9). While the Statesmen will be untested, the coaching staff is quick to point out that that does not necessarily equate to a lack of talent.

Sophomore James Alexander and junior Corey Cage, a converted running back, are the projected starters at the corners. Alexander was an astute apprentice to Anderson last year, seeing time as the nickel back and logging 35 tackles and eight pass break ups.

Cage, who runs on the HWS club track team, has excellent speed and picked up the basics of the position quickly during spring practices.

First-years Jonathan Marich (Dedham, Mass.) and Chris Szymanski (Williamsville, N.Y.) will bring depth to the position.

FREE SAFETY

Junior Mike Kaplun is an intelligent player who always seems to be in the right place and makes good decisions. Junior Brian Newcomb, sophomore Lance Boyington, and first-year Dan Pembroke (St. James, N.Y.) will compete for the second spot on the two deep.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Sophomore place kicker Kevin Olson and junior punter Dominick Ancona are the returning starters, but first-year Denis Avdic (Utica, N.Y.) will push both players for playing time.

Olson finished last season as the second most successful kicker on PATs, converting 37 of 38 (.974). He also hit 5 of 11 field goal tries, including a long of 47 yards.

Ancona was a workhorse last year, kicking more times than any other punter in the Liberty League. He averaged a solid 35.4 yards per punt and dropped 16 inside the opponent’s 20-yard line.

Avdic has a very strong leg. He was selected to play in the Governor’s Bowl, a high school All-Star game between New York and New Jersey. Avdic holds the Section III record for longest field goal, booming a 55-yarder against Henniger last season.

The job of punt returner is wide open.
Senior Anderson did the job last season, not because of his electric returns (he averaged a solid 11.6 yards per return), but for his consistent ability to catch the ball with the kicking team bearing down on him.

This year the coaches are looking for someone to step up and fill that role. The same, at least in part, is true on kick returns. Sorhaindo and Blakowski did the job last year. Blakowski will not return kicks this year. Sorhaindo (25.6 yds/KR) may return kicks, but the coaching staff believes this is a job, like punt returner, best filled by first-years and sophomores hungry for playing time and ready to prove their worth.
