Retired Jerseys

Rich Kowalski '76

was the second player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in four consecutive seasons. His career total of 4,632 yards, was an NCAA Division III record until 1985, and still stands as the Hobart standard, along with his career marks for points (308), carries (907), and total offense (4,760). The team MVP for three straight seasons, Kowalski won the Vincent Welch Trophy for scholarship and leadership in 1973, the Murray Bartlett Trophy for sportsmanship in 1975, and the Statesmen Trophy in 1976. He served as captain of the football team as a senior. Kowalski was inducted into the Hobart Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987.

Top Guns

Former Statesmen quarterbacks Craig Swanson '04, Mike Hanna '68, and Art Lambert '58 all held the Hobart career record for passing yards. The trio gathered in Baltimore earlier this year for a Campaign for the Colleges event. The ambitious $160 capital campaign includes a renovation of Boswell Field, the locker rooms in Elliott Varsity House, and an expansion of the Sport and Recreation Center cardio/weight room.

KEVIN COITON

KEVIN COLTON

Nine-time All-Liberty League pick Dan Suozzi '05 finished his career as the leader in receptions (181), receiving yards (2,843), and receiving touchdowns (26). The multitasking star earned all-conference honors at three positions in the same season twice.

Running back Ed Cooney '80 holds the Hobart record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games, surpassing the century mark in 12 straight contests. During his career, Cooney earned the Murray Bartlett (1979) and the Vincent S. Welch (1977) memorial trophies.

Including the most recent class of inductees, the Class of 2006 (right), the Hobart Athletics Hall of Fame has enshrined 89 great names in Hobart sports.

The Hall of Fame was established to recognize outstanding Hobart athletes, coaches, administrators, and friends who enhance the proud and rich tradition of Hobart Athletics. The permanent location of the Hall of Fame is the trophy lobby on the second floor of Bristol Gymnasium. Displayed there is an artist's portrait of each inductee.
