

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

GEORGETOWN 13, Hobart 5

March 11

SAN ANTONIO—For the first time in 32 years, two Division I lacrosse programs squared off in Texas. The fifth-ranked Georgetown Hoyas lived up to their billing, topping the Statesmen 13-5 at the Texas Military Institute's Howell Field.

Hobart opened the scoring at the 10:28 mark of the first quarter, but the Hoyas responded with the next six tallies, including two each from senior Jordan Vettoretti and junior Mike Boynton.

Junior midfielder BRIAN JOY broke the run with 32 seconds remaining in the half with a man-up goal, but the Hoyas answered just four seconds later on a goal by senior Mike Hammer to head into halftime with a 7-2 lead.

The teams traded goals in the third quarter, and the Hoyas scored four straight to start the fourth, putting the game out of reach. Vettoretti and Hammer led Georgetown with five points each.

Senior attackman JOHN BOGOSIAN became just the fourth Statesman to play four seasons of Division I lacrosse and score 100 career points. Bogosian led Hobart with a pair of goals, while sophomore NATE HILL added a goal and an assist.

For Hobart, senior MIKE BORSZ made 14 saves in 51 minutes, while sophomore DAN VALENTE turned away one down the stretch. Georgetown's Rich D'Andrea made 11 stops to earn the win.

Hobart 16, LAFAYETTE 7

March 15

EASTON, Pa.—The Hobart lacrosse team turned in a near-perfect first half and rolled past host Lafayette 16-7 in a Patriot League matchup at Rappolt Field. First-year MIKE CONKLIN led all scorers with four goals and an assist.

The Statesmen's defense, led by senior goalie MIKE BORSZ, negated the Leopards' attack. Borsz played the opening 30 minutes, posting nine saves, including at least three from point-blank-range, without allowing a goal.

Meanwhile, Hobart's offense posted four scores in the opening 15 minutes, including a pair of goals by senior JOHN BOGOSIAN. The Statesmen began to fire on all cylinders in the second stanza. Bogosian kick-started a seven-goal quarter for Hobart with his third of the game and team-leading 12th of the season. Senior KRIS SHORE, junior GEOFF ZBIKOWSKI, senior TIM BOOTH, and junior MARK WILLIAMSON followed with single tallies to balloon the Statesmen's lead to 9-0 with 3:26 remaining in the first half.

Conklin scored twice—just 11 seconds apart—in the final two minutes to send Hobart into halftime with an 11-0 lead.

Lafayette finally broke through the Statesmen defense in the second half. In fact, the Leopards scored six of the first seven goals of the second half to creep to within six, 12-6, with 9:47 remaining in the game. Pat Lennon led the Leopards in scoring with four goals.

The Statesmen dashed any hopes of a comeback with four of the final five goals, including a nifty move on a shorthanded goal by sophomore NATE HILL.

Hobart completely dominated the contest, outshooting Lafayette 49-37, and boasting a 35-28 advantage on ground balls. The Statesmen were perfect on clears, converting all 23 of their attempts while limiting the Leopards to 20-of-30.

Booth and sophomore BLAKE REARDON controlled the faceoffs. Booth won 9-of-14 restarts, while Reardon was 7-of-11. Both players picked up a game-high five ground balls.

In goal, DAN VALENTE finished with 10 saves in the second half for the Statesmen, while Kevin DeVito and Koch combined for 14 saves for Lafayette.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

HOBART 9, Lehigh 4

March 22

GENEVA—The Hobart defense continued its strong showing over Patriot League opponents, limiting visiting Lehigh to just three even-strength goals, as the Statesmen topped the Mountain Hawks 9-4 on McCooey Field in front of 1,153 fans. Senior goalie MIKE BORSZ went the distance and earned the win with 11 saves.

“Our defense did an outstanding job against a solid offensive team,” Head Coach MATT KERWICK '90 said. “I feel we played very well offensively at times, we just didn’t finish all of our opportunities.”

Hobart’s defense limited Lehigh’s top two scorers—senior Tony Lowe and sophomore Andrew Lucas entered the game averaging a combined four goals per game—to one goal apiece. The Mountain Hawks also struggled to solve Hobart’s man-down defense, taking advantage of just 1-of-9 extra-man opportunities.

While the Statesmen may not have produced as many goals as Kerwick would have liked, it wasn’t because of a lack of opportunities. Senior midfielder TIM BOOTH dominated the faceoff X, winning 11-of-15 restarts and collecting a game-high 11 ground balls.

The Statesmen offense got off to a fast start. First-year midfielder PATRICK MEADE rifled home a shot at the 11:24 mark. Senior JOHN BOGOSIAN made it a two-goal game less than two minutes later, and Meade added his second tally just 10 seconds before the end of the opening frame.

In the second quarter, Lucas got Lehigh on the board just 18 seconds into the stanza. The goal halted Borsz’s shutout streak against Patriot League opponents, dating back to the 2002 Holy Cross game, at 102 minutes, 29 seconds.

Bogosian responded with a man-up goal, assisted by sophomore midfielder NATE HILL. Lowe scored 33 seconds later, but senior midfielder SEAN KENT answered with his second goal of the season to send Hobart into the break with a 5-2 lead. The third quarter saw Bogosian sandwich a pair of goals around a Lehigh tally to give the Statesmen a 7-3 lead with 15 minutes remaining.

The Mountain Hawks continued to hang around, closing to within three, 7-4, at the 13:05 mark of the fourth on a man-up goal by junior midfielder Kurt Gerry. Senior long-stick midfielder BRYAN BOME iced the game with his first collegiate goal at 7:08, and Hill added the final goal of the afternoon 15 seconds before the final horn.

Sophomore goalie Tom Ellis made 16 saves for Lehigh.

Syracuse 15, HOBART 12

March 25

GENEVA—The unranked Hobart lacrosse team gave fifth-ranked Syracuse a scare in front of a raucous crowd at McCooey Field, but the Orangemen scored four of the game’s last five goals to post a 15-12 victory and avoid back-to-back losses for the first time since 1995. Hobart senior attackman JOHN BOGOSIAN (5-1) and Syracuse senior attackman Liam Banks (2-4) shared top scoring honors with six points apiece.

The Statesmen got off to a strong start, controlling the tempo of play in the first quarter and outshooting the Orange 10-3. Bogosian scored the opening frame’s lone goal to give Hobart a lead it wouldn’t relinquish until early in the third quarter.

In the second quarter, Bogosian and first-year attackman MIKE CONKLIN logged goals less than 30 seconds apart to give the Statesmen a 3-0 lead at the 12:37 mark. Syracuse broke into the scoring column 36 seconds later when junior attackman Michael Powell scored a man-up goal.

Less than a minute later, Bogosian restored the three-goal lead and 22 seconds after that, sophomore midfielder NATE HILL scored a man-up goal to give Hobart a four-goal lead, the largest lead of the game for either team. Junior midfielder Steve Vallone scored at the 10:01 mark to pull SU to within two, concluding a six-goal flurry in a span of just 3:03. Hobart senior midfielder SEAN KENT put the Statesmen back in front by four, but senior attackman Liam Banks scored twice in the final 5:24 of the half to head into the break with Hobart leading 6-4.

Vallone scored the first two goals of the second half to forge the first of six ties. The teams traded goals to make it a 7-7 game, then Vallone scored his 13th of the season to give the Orangemen their first lead of the game. The Upstate New York rivals traded goals until the final minute of the third quarter when Conklin and sophomore midfielder CHRIS SCANLON connected on back-to-back goals to give Hobart a 10-9 lead—its final advantage of the game—heading into the final frame.

Syracuse scored twice to open the fourth to take an 11-10 lead, but Bogosian forged the final tie with 11:02 remaining. The Orangemen responded with the next three goals, to take a 14-11 lead. Bogosian gave the Statesmen fans hope with 4:24 left, netting his team-leading 21st goal and trimming Hobart’s deficit to two, but Vallone scored his 14th goal of the season at the 3:07 mark to close out the scoring.

In goal, sophomore Jay Pfeifer recorded 10 saves and the win, while senior MIKE BORSZ made nine stops for the Statesmen.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

BUCKNELL 8, Hobart 7

March 29

LEWISBURG, Pa.—Bucknell scored with 71 seconds remaining to steal a crucial Patriot League showdown with the Statesmen, 8-7. The loss dropped Hobart to 4-3 overall, 3-1 in the league, while Bucknell improved to 5-2, 2-0.

The Statesmen opened the fourth quarter at rainy Christy Mathewson Memorial Stadium with a 6-5 advantage. The Bison erased that lead with a pair of scores five minutes apart to take a 7-6 lead with just over three minutes remaining.

Hobart caught a break with 1:58 showing on the game clock when the Bison were whistled for a push that gave the Statesmen a 30-second man-advantage. Hobart only needed eight. Senior midfielder TIM BOOTH, who fired shots at eye level or above all afternoon, rifled a bounce shot between the legs of senior goalie Justin Sussman to tie the game.

Bucknell won the ensuing faceoff and ripped a shot on senior MIKE BORSZ. The Camillus, N.Y., native was up to the task, deflecting the would-be game-winner, unfortunately the Bison retained possession, setting up the go-ahead score.

Booth won the ensuing faceoff, allowing first-year attackman MIKE CONKLIN, who had a goal and an assist in the contest, to fire a shot with 63 seconds remaining, but Sussman watched it into his crosse, and Bucknell ran out the clock.

Both Borsz and Sussman were exceptional in the cage. Borsz allowed just five even-strength goals all afternoon, while logging 14 saves. Sussman made 16 stops.

A nail-biter from the start, neither team led by more than a single goal. Junior attackman MARK WILLIAMSON, who led all scorers with three tallies, opened the scoring just over four minutes into the game. Following a Bucknell goal, senior midfielder KRIS SHORE put home his fifth goal of the season, but the Bison responded with the next two goals to take a 3-2 lead into the second quarter. Shore finished with a goal and two assists.

The teams traded goals in the second frame to send Bucknell into the locker room with a 4-3 lead.

To start the third, Booth and Williamson scored for the visitors, and the Bison answered with their third man-up goal of the game to knot the contest at five-all. Williamson scored again to close the third, setting the stage for the dramatic final 15.

Hobart 10, COLGATE 8

April 2

HAMILTON, N.Y.—Senior goalie MIKE BORSZ was outstanding in the net, making 17 stops to help the Statesmen hold off Colgate 10-8 in an important Patriot League matchup. Senior TIM BOOTH led all scorers with three goals and an assist.

Hobart jumped out to a 5-1 lead in the first quarter, getting goals from five different players. Senior KRIS SHORE made it 6-1 just 57 seconds into the second stanza with his second goal of the game and seventh of the season. It was all Raiders after that as Colgate rattled off a 5-1 run to pull to within one goal, setting up an exciting final frame.

First-year attackman MIKE CONKLIN gave the Statesmen a two-goal cushion with a man-up score 26 seconds into the fourth quarter, but Colgate's Jeff Vander Meulen made it a one-goal game just over a minute later. The Raiders knotted the match for the first time all evening with 4:17 left on an unassisted goal by Nick Gerken. Booth won the ensuing faceoff and took it straight to the goal to put the Statesmen ahead for good at 9-8. Sophomore CHRIS SCANLON added an insurance score with 3:39 left to make it a 10-8 game.

The Raiders outshot Hobart 43-30, but the Statesmen won 14 of 22 faceoffs and edged Colgate 34-33 on ground balls. Hobart was 1-for-4 on the extra man, while the Raiders went 2-for-6.

Andrew Jarolimek had nine saves for Colgate.

Tim Booth '03 recorded game-highs in goals (3), faceoffs won (14), and ground balls (5) in a 10-8 win over Colgate.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

PENN STATE 14, Hobart 10

April 5

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—The Statesmen scored first, but were unable to keep Penn State's offense under wraps, falling to the Nittany Lions 14-10 in a non-conference contest. Senior JOHN BOGOSIAN paced the Hobart offense with three goals and an assist.

Senior TIM BOOTH and sophomore CHRIS SCANLON scored in the opening five minutes to take a 2-1 lead over Penn State. The Lions answered with eight unanswered goals before Booth and sophomore NATE HILL scored back-to-back goals to make it a 9-4 game midway through the second quarter. Penn State scored twice more to head into halftime with an 11-5 lead.

Bogosian and junior MARK WILLIAMSON tallied a pair of goals in the third period to make it 12-7, but goals from Rob Booth and Will Cutler early in the fourth quarter put the game out of reach at 14-7. Bogosian started a Statesmen run at the 10:29 mark of the final frame as Hobart tallied the final three goals of the contest.

Senior MIKE BORSZ and sophomore DAN VALENTE combined for 12 saves in the game, while Penn State goalie Chris Garrity made 11 stops.

The Lions held a 39-34 advantage on shots, but the Statesmen got the better of the faceoffs (17-of-28) and scored on 2-of-3 man-up opportunities.

DENVER 15, Hobart 8

April 12

DENVER—For the first time during the 2003 campaign, Hobart's opponent scored the first goal of the game. It was not a good sign.

The University of Denver lacrosse team scored eight of the game's first nine goals en route to a 15-8 victory over the visiting Statesmen at Pioneer Field in front of 540 sun-drenched fans.

The Pioneers charged out to a 3-0 lead before sophomore NATE HILL set up first-year MIKE CONKLIN's 12th goal of the season. At least one of the two had a hand in seven of Hobart's eight goals on the day.

As the second quarter began, Hobart trailed 3-1, but Denver netted five unanswered goals in the first six minutes of the frame to build an 8-1 advantage. The Statesmen halted the run at the 6:18 mark when Conklin returned the favor, setting up Hill's eighth goal of the year. Hobart trailed 8-2 heading into halftime.

The Pioneers struck first in the second half, but the Statesmen responded just 10 seconds later. Following Denver's ninth score, senior TIM BOOTH won the ensuing faceoff and raced into the restraining area, feeding sophomore SEAN REED, who fired home Hobart's third tally.

The quick strike sparked a 3-0 Hobart run, with Conklin and senior JOHN BOGOSIAN accounting for the other two goals, to pull the Statesmen to within four, 9-5. Hobart was still within striking distance with 8:33 remaining, 10-6, but the Pioneers scored five of the next six goals to put the game out of reach.

Conklin finished with a career-high-matching four goals and an assist, while Hill contributed a goal and four assists. Bogosian chipped in a pair of scores. Booth enjoyed another strong outing at the faceoff X, winning 14-of-22 and collecting a game-high eight ground balls, in addition to two assists.

Hobart outshot Denver 44-36, but the hot goaltending of Jeff Nuziato (19 saves) kept the Statesmen attack at bay. Senior MIKE BORSZ and sophomore DAN VALENTE combined for seven saves.

John Bogosian '03 notched a hat trick plus an assist in Happy Valley, but it wasn't enough to lift the Statesmen over Penn State. A three-time All-Patriot League selection, Bogosian led Hobart in scoring for three straight seasons.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

Army 12, HOBART 10

April 19

GENEVA—Hobart outscored visiting Army 7-2 in the second half, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 10-3 halftime deficit, as the Black Knights hung on for a 12-10 Patriot League victory in front of 1,300 fans at McCooey Field. Army's John Walker netted four first-half goals to lead all scorers.

A first-year attackman, Walker opened the game's scoring 64 seconds in with an unassisted tally, his 22nd of the season. Hobart junior attackman MARK WILLIAMSON responded with a goal of his own less than a minute later. Senior midfielder Chris Woods put the visitors back in front, but the Statesmen responded again. This time first-year attackman MIKE CONKLIN fired home a feed from Williamson.

Junior attackman Jeff Bryan gave Army a 3-2 lead at the 10:23 mark, but, with 5:19 remaining in the opening frame, Hobart equalized on first-year midfielder PAT MEADE's third goal of the season.

The Black Knights took control of the contest with three goals in just 47 seconds to carry a 6-3 advantage into the second quarter. Army continued to roll in the second, netting all four goals of the stanza, completing a 7-0 run keyed by three scores off the stick of Walker.

As much as the first half belonged to the Black Knights, the Statesmen controlled play after the intermission. Hobart started to build momentum, netting back-to-back extra-man goals to start the third quarter. Senior midfielder TIM BOOTH registered the first, followed by sophomore midfielder SEAN REED. Both scores were set up by senior midfielder KRIS SHORE.

Junior midfielder Marko Kostovic scored what proved the game-winner with 5:16 remaining in the third quarter. He added a second tally late in the frame. The Statesmen netted five of the game's final six goals to close to within two with 1:22 remaining, but could get no closer.

Booth led Hobart with two goals and two assists, while posting a 14-8 record at the faceoff X against first-year Tony Vozzolo, who entered the game leading the League in faceoff percentage (.645). Williamson added a goal, two assists, and seven ground balls, while senior attackman JOHN BOGOSIAN contributed two goals and an assist.

Woods netted three goals for Army.

In goal, sophomore Matt Darak made a season-high 24 saves, while junior DAN VALENTE and senior MIKE BORSZ combined for eight stops.

Loyola 13, HOBART 12

April 26

GENEVA—Hobart battled back from a five-goal, first half deficit to tie 19th-ranked Loyola, 12-12, with 2:28 remaining in the fourth quarter, but senior attackman Chris Summers scored with 15 seconds remaining to spoil Hobart's Senior Day festivities. Summers paced the Greyhounds with four goals and two assists, while junior attackman MARK WILLIAMSON and sophomore midfielder NATE HILL led Hobart with three goals and an assist apiece.

The Greyhounds broke open a 1-1 game with five unanswered goals in the second quarter, including two each from Summers and Goettelmann. Loyola led 6-2 at halftime.

Hobart entered the fourth quarter trailing 10-7. Senior attackman Gunnar Goettelmann opened the frame with his third goal of the game to boost Loyola's advantage to four. The Statesmen responded with five of the next six scores, including a pair by Hill. Senior midfielder TIM BOOTH's 14th goal of the season knotted the contest at the 2:28 mark.

In the final two minutes, Hobart put the first shot on goal, but senior goalie Mark Bloomquist was up to the task. At the other end of the field, Summers buried the game-winner on the crease, set up by a Goettelmann assist.

Booth won the ensuing faceoff, setting up a shot by Hill that Bloomquist redirected. The Statesmen backed up the shot with three seconds left. Booth fired a low screamer in a last ditch effort to force overtime, but Bloomquist made the last of his 15 saves.

Senior goalie MIKE BORSZ made 13 saves for Hobart.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

CORNELL 14, Hobart 5

May 2

ITHACA, N.Y.—Ninth-ranked Cornell showed it's worthy of a top-10 ranking as three players recorded hat tricks to down Hobart 14-5 in the teams' regular season finale. Senior goaltender MIKE BORSZ had a season-high 19 stops, pushing him into fourth place on the career saves list with 473.

The Big Red jumped out in front early, getting a pair of goals from Sean Greenhalgh and a third from Dave Pittard to take a 3-0 lead through the opening 15 minutes. First-year MIKE CONKLIN tallied his 16th goal of the year three minutes into the second stanza to cut the lead to two, but a tough Big Red defense kept the Hobart attack out of the box, resulting in a six-goal run by Cornell. The Big Red closed out the half up 9-1. The Statesmen were just 19-31 on clears for the day.

Cornell stretched its lead to 10 at the beginning of the third quarter, but senior JOHN BOGOSIAN halted the streak at the 8:01 mark with his 32nd goal of the year.

Trailing 10-2 heading into the final session, senior TIM BOOTH netted his 15th of the year in the opening 35 seconds, but Cornell continued to attack the cage, scoring four unanswered goals. Conklin and Bogosian both notched their second goals of the game in the closing 4:27.

Bogosian led Hobart in scoring for the third consecutive season with 33 goals and 12 assists for 45 points. He finished his career with 88 goals, 18th all-time, and 46 assists for 134 points.

Brandon Ross and Adam Buttermore combined for 10 saves for Cornell.

Mike Borsz '03 closed out his Hobart career with a season-high 19 saves at Cornell.

THE PATRIOT LEAGUE AND BEYOND

Hobart joined the Patriot League as an associate member in lacrosse in 2000. The Patriot League was founded on the principles of admitting athletes who are academically representative of their class, awarding predominantly need-based scholarships and maintaining presidential control of athletics. At member institutions, participation in athletics is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education. The Statesmen have captured two of the past four conference championships.

The 2004 season marks Hobart's final season as a member of the Patriot League. Beginning in 2005, the Statesmen will compete in the high-powered ECAC Lacrosse League. Joining Georgetown, Loyola, Penn State, Rutgers, St. John's, and UMass, the ECAC Lacrosse League will be one of, if not the toughest lacrosse conference in Division I.
