G		Game Day Decision

SERIES SNAPSHOT: The Statesmen and the Scarlet Knights are squaring off for the fourth time this afternoon. Hobart holds a 2-1 series lead, winning the first two showdowns by a combined score of 33-22. However, Rutgers picked up the win last season, claiming an 8-7 overtime triumph in New Jersey.

WHEN LAST WE MET: On March 25, 2006, in Piscataway, Devon Britt scored with 18 seconds remaining in the first overtime session to lift the Scarlet Knights to an 8-7 win over the Statesmen. Daryl Veltman recorded a hat trick for Hobart, while added a pair of goals. Rutgers was led by the three-goal performance of Mike Dugan and the three assists of Chris Doctor.

POTOMAC TWO-STEP: For the fourth consecutive season, Georgetown slipped past Hobart by a two-goal margin, defeating the Statesmen 15-13. JAMIE KIRK recorded a game-high six points, all on assists, while NICK CURRIE netted a career-high five goals for Hobart. Moved to the nation's capital due to a late season storm, the Statesmen faced a two-goal hole to start the fourth quarter, but back-to-back strikes by CHRIS DAVID and Currie tied the game for the eighth and final time. The seventh-ranked Hoyas responded with their own two-goal burst to retake the lead for good.

EXTRA! EXTRA!: The Statesmen began the week fourth in the nation in extra-man scoring. They've scored on 55.9 percent (8-15) of their extra-man opportunities this season, including an impressive 5-of-7 showing against Binghamton. It's the most extra-man goals scored by Hobart since netting five at Ohio State on March 12, 2005.

GOAL TIME: In the fastest game on two feet, Hobart is running at the head of the pack in scoring. The Statesmen's 12.17 goals per game is seventh in Division I through games of March 18. Hobart is on pace to score 170 goals this season, the most in a campaign since the program moved to Division I in 1995.

CLEAR DIFFERENCE: In Hobart's three wins this season, the Statesmen are clearing 86.8 percent of the time, while the opposition is successful just 62.2 percent of the time. On the flip side, Hobart's clearing rate slips to 85.2 percent while the opposition improves to 90.3 percent.

CANADIAN CONNECTION: Canadian imports JAMIE KIRK and DARYL VELTMAN have teamed up to score 14 goals this season (13 Veltman from Kirk and 1 Kirk from Veltman). The former high school teammates at the Salisbury School also play together for the Orangeville Northmen in the Ontario Junior A Summer Lacrosse League.

FEEDER PROGRAM: Junior attackman JAMIE KIRK leads the ECAC and is second in the nation with 23 assists. He boasts 52 percent of the team's assists this season. Kirk posted a season-high seven assists against Bucknell.

RECORD WATCH: Speaking of Kirk, he needs just four assists to break Hobart's Division I record for assists in a season. Kirk has dished out 23 helpers in six games (3.83/gm). The current mark was established by NATE HILL '05, who set up 26 goals during the 2004 season.

STREAKY: Four Statesmen enter today's game with consecutive game points streaks. DARYL VELTMAN and NICK CURRIE have logged at least one point in 11 consecutive games, while JEFF COLBURN has notched a point in 10 straight. JAMIE KIRK is the fourth, registering a point in seven straight contests, dating back to his final game as a Catamount.

Among Division I Statesmen, he is sixth in career points (106), four behind No. 5 NATHAN ROOST '98; sixth in career goals (70), four shy of No. 5 MIKE CONKLIN '06; and sixth in career assists (36), four behind No. 5 JARED BEBEE '00.

COLLECTION AGENTS: Hobart has collected a league-high 250 ground balls this season thanks in no small part to MATT SMALLEY and MATT RANAGHAN. Smalley leads the team with 37, while Ranaghan is second with 36. They rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in the nation in ground balls per game.

THE MOST: Hobart scored the first five goals of the game at Hartford. The last time the Statesmen scored that many unanswered goals was the 2006 22-6 win at Canisius. Hobart produced two five-goal outbursts against the Golden Griffins.

SINGLE DIGITS: When the Hobart defense holds the opposition to nine goals or less, the Statesmen are 29-8 (.784) under Head Coach MATT KERWICK.

DOUBLE DUTY: Two Statesmen play more than one sport at Hobart. Junior midfielder DAN SPINELLA and sophomore defenseman JUSTIN HAGER helped the football team to the NCAA Tournament as a fullback (3.5 yds/att) and line-backer (40 tkls, INT), respectively.

FASTEST TO THE MARK: With his first goal of the game against Marist, DARYL VELTMAN became the fastest Hobart player to record 100 career points since the program moved to Division I in 1995. He scored 103 points in his first 32 games as a Statesmen. NATHAN ROOST '98 was the previous standard, recording his 100th point in his 33rd game.

WELCOME TO THE CLUB: The Statesmen's 12-7 win over St. John's on April 22, 2006, was the 700th victory in the storied history of Hobart lacrosse. In 105 varsity seasons, the Statesmen have an all-time record of 703-408-20 (.630). Hobart is just the third collegiate lacrosse program to reach 700 wins, joining Johns Hopkins and Syracuse universities.

COACH K: Head Coach MATT KERWICK is in his sixth season at the helm of his alma mater's lacrosse program. The 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year has a 36-41 record at Hobart and is 88-72 in 11 seasons as a head coach, including three-year stints at Alfred University and Randolph-Macon College. Last summer, Kerwick served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Lacrosse team that earned a silver medal at the ILF World Championship.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION: Hobart has made 25 appearances in the NCAA Tournament (4 Division I, 6 Division II, 15 Division III) and has won 16 national championships (1 USILA, 2 NCAA DII, 13 NCAA DIII). Hobart is one of only two schools to compete in the NCAA Tournament in all three divisions (Cortland State is the other).

ON THE AIR: All of Hobart's lacrosse games are broadcast by WEOS-FM (89.7/90.3 in Geneva, 88.1 in Ithaca). Outside of WEOS's broadcast area, fans can tune into the station's streaming audio online at www.weos.org. Veteran radio man TED BAKER will describe the play-by-play, while MIKE BLACK will provide the color commentary.

HOBART'S ONLINE HOME: The official online home of Hobart and William Smith Athletics is located at www.hws.edu/athletics. Fans can access schedules, box scores, statistics, rosters and more.

TIME OFF: Rutgers is playing for the first time in 11 days. The Scarlet Knights lost 15-8 on March 13 to then ninth-ranked Princeton. Rutgers was scheduled to play Army on March 16, but the same storm that forced Hobart and Georgetown to head to D.C., forced the postponement of that game.

SCOUTING THE SCARLET KNIGHTS: Rutgers is 1-3 overall, 0-1 in the ECAC. The Scarlet Knights beat Division II Dowling to open the season, but have dropped three straight since. More than 25 percent of RU's goals this season have come in extra-man situations (11 of 40). Colin Checcio leads the team in points with nine goals and two assists. Chris White is the team's top playmaker with four assists. Justin Pennington is the Knights' top faceoff man and leads the team with 16 ground balls. In goal, Lyle Farrar (9.95 GAA, .561 SV%, 1-2) and Peter Pantages (13.45, .474, 0-1) have split time in the cage.

#25 Hobart vs #3 Syracuse (Feb 18, 2007 at Syracuse, N.Y.)

Four unanswered goals late in the fourth quarter saved the third-ranked Syracuse lacrosse team from a second straight loss to Hobart. The Orange rallied from an 11-9 hole to post a 13-11 victory in front of 5,252 fans at the Carrier Dome, reclaiming the Kraus-Simmons Trophy.

DARYL VELTMAN and JEFF COLBURN led the Statesmen with two goals and two assists each. Attackman Dan Hardy paced the Orange with three goals and two assists.

NICK CURRIE gave Hobart the early lead, scoring on the game's first shot just 30 seconds in with a laser from the right side of goalie Peter Coluccini (13 saves).

Senior Brandon Baer stopped the first two shots he faced, before Syracuse countered with back-to-back goals. Baer turned in a spectacular first start in the cage, recording 15 saves, including several from point-blank.

It was back and forth affair that saw the lead change hands five times. Colburn's second score with 13:17 remaining put Hobart on top 11-9, but it proved to be the final score of the contest for the Statesmen.

Hobart held an 11-9 advantage on faceoffs entering the fourth quarter, but Syracuse turned things around in the final frame, winning five of six at the X. DAN SPINELLA won 12 of 26 restarts.

The Statesmen had a 38-37 advantage on ground balls, led by MATT SMALLEY and MATTHEW RANAGHAN with seven apiece.

Hobart vs Bucknell (Feb 24, 2007 at Brooklandville, Md.)

Tim Brandau scored with 1:16 remaining in overtime to lift Bucknell to an 11-10 victory over Hobart. Brandau led the Bison with two goals and two assists.

The loss overshadowed several exceptional individual performances. JAMIE KIRK recorded a game-high eight points, the most since DARYL VELTMAN produced eight points at Canisius last season. Kirk dished out seven assists, including four feeds to Veltman, who finished with six goals, the most by a Hobart player since Feb. 23, 2003, when JOHN BOGOSIAN '03 netted six against Butler. Bogosian was also the last Hobart player to hand out seven helpers (March 24, 2001, vs. Lehigh).

DAN SPINELLA dominated the faceoff X, winning 17 of the game's 25 restarts, including all 10 in the second quarter, while MATT SMALLEY collected a game-high 11 ground balls, many of them on faceoffs, leading the Statesmen to a 44-29 advantage in that category. Smalley's total is the most by a Hobart player since TIM BOOTH '03 recorded 11 against Lehigh on March 22, 2003.

Bucknell carried a 9-8 lead into the fourth quarter, but with 12:02 remaining in regulation, the final Kirk to Veltman feed tied the game. Hobart claimed its final lead of the day with 86 seconds remaining when Veltman finished a feed from NICK CURRIE.

The Bison won the ensuing faceoff and evened the match 39 seconds later on Perry Menzies' third goal of the day to set up Brandau's heroics.

Thanks to an assist from Kirk, Veltman scored the game's opening goal on the extra-man at 11:21. Nine minutes later, Murphy finished a feed from Kirk for a two-goal advantage.

Binghamton won the ensuing faceoff and needed just eight seconds to record its first goal on a shot by Jake Boyce.

Veltman, set up by JEFF COLBURN, made it a 3-1 game with the only goal of the second quarter.

The Statesmen started the third frame with back-to-back scores by NICK CURRIE and Colburn. Carlson interrupted Hobart's flow with his first goal, but the Statesmen responded with consecutive goals by CHRIS DAVID and Murphy.

Binghamton managed back-to-back goals spanning the third and fourth quarters to cut Hobart's lead to 7-4, but, with a behind-the-back shot, Veltman sparked a 4-0 run that put the home team firmly in control.

BRANDON BAER earned the win with eight saves, while MAX SILBERLECHT turned away three shots in relief. Binghamton's Larry Kline made a career-high 16 saves.

For the third straight game, Hobart won the battle for ground balls (40-27). MATT RANAGHAN picked up a game-high seven GBs for the Statesmen. Hobart also enjoyed a strong showing at the faceoff X. DAN SPINELLA won 10 of the 16 restarts he took, helping the Statesmen to a 10-8 advantage.

Hobart vs. Hartford (Mar 10, 2007 at Hartford, Conn.)

The Statesmen raced out to a 5-0 lead and never looked back in a 17-5 triumph over Hartford at Al-Marzook Field. JEFF COLBURN scored a game-high five points (4-1) for the Statesmen.

Hobart dominated every aspect of the contest, outshooting the Hawks 48-28, holding a 52-39 advantage on ground balls, and winning faceoffs 19-7. The Statesmen killed off all five of Hartford's extra-man opportunities and scored on their lone man-advantage. Hobart also rode their hosts relentlessly, as the Hawks were unsuccessful on 12-of-29 clear attempts.

DARYL VELTMAN had three goals and an assist, raising his career total to 99 (65-34). Only five Statesmen have record 100 career points since Hobart moved to Division I in 1995.

The Statesmen also got a goal and two assists apiece from JAMIE KIRK and SEAN MURPHY. Faceoff specialist DAN SPINELLA posted a 14-3 record at the X and collected a team-high six ground balls.

BRANDON BAER earned the win, making nine saves in the first half. MAX SILBERLICHT made two stops in the third quarter, while BRAD HESTER and first-year KEVIN GIBBS combined for four stops in the fourth.

The Hawks sent three goalies into the contest. John McMahon was saddled with the loss after making 12 stops in three quarters.

Daniel Clough scored twice for Hartford.

Colburn scored the game's first two goals, followed by a pair of Veltman tallies. Colburn capped the first quarter scoring with his third goal of the contest. The Hawks got on the board 25 seconds into the second quarter, but the Statesmen netted five of the next six goals to carry a 10-2 lead into halftime.

Hobart cruised through the second half, subbing liberally, and secured its second straight win.

Marist vs. Hobart (Mar 13, 2007 at Geneva, N.Y.)

DARYL VELTMAN recorded the 100th point of his career while leading the Statesmen to a 10-5 victory over Marist on McCooey Field. Veltman netted a pair of goals and set up two more to raise his career total to 103 points.

The junior needed just three and a half minutes and one shot to reach the 100-point plateau in his 32nd career game. He is the fastest of the sixth Division I Statesmen to reach that milestone, beating Nathan Roost '98 by one game.

Hobart outscored the Red Foxes 4-1 in the first quarter and cruised to victory. The Statesmen won all of the major stat categories, outshooting their guests 45-31, collecting more ground balls (43-24), winning more faceoffs (13-6), and clearing at a much higher rate (91.6%-64.2). The Hobart defense was sharp all afternoon, but excelled in man-down situations, killing off all six of Marist's extra-man opportunities.

CHRIS DAVID netted a hat trick for the Statesmen, while JAMIE KIRK handed out three assists. JEFF COLBURN also contributed three points on two goals and an assist.

MATT SMALLEY collected a game-high seven ground balls for Hobart, while MATT RANAGHAN and DAN SPINELLA each picked up six. Spinella dominated the X, winning 12 of the 16 restarts he took.

The Statesmen might have won by a much wider margin if not for Marist goalie Ryan Penner. The sophomore turned back 16 shots and helped his own cause with the second of the Red Foxes' two first-half goals. With Hobart employing a 10-man ride, Penner saw Hobart starter BRANDON BAER (9 saves) stray too far from his cage. Penner launched a shot from his own restraining box that bounced just inside the crease and hopped up just under the cross bar.

Baer played 43 minutes before yielding to BRAD HESTER and MAX SILBERLICHT, who combined for four saves in relief.

Hobart vs. #7 Georgetown (Mar 18, 2007 at Washington, D.C.)

Hobart got a career-high five goals from NICK CURRIE, but it wasn't enough to upset seventh-ranked Georgetown in the nation's capital. The Hoyas got a five-goal performance from midfielder Dan D'Agnes in a 15-13 victory over the Statesmen.

The game was originally scheduled to be played in Geneva on St. Patrick's Day, but a late winter storm forced a 22-hour delay and change of venue.

Hobart trailed 12-10 entering the fourth quarter, but Silver Spring, Md., native CHRIS DAVID (2 gls) and Currie connected on back-to-back unassisted goals to tie the contest for the seventh and final time. Georgetown answered the surge with consecutive scores of its own by D'Agnes and Garrett Wilson to restore the two-goal lead with 9:05 remaining.

DARYL VELTMAN (3 gls) made it a 14-13 game at the 5:49 mark, depositing a feed from classmate JAMIE KIRK, who recorded a game-high six assists.

D'Agnes put the Hoyas back in front by two with an extra-man goal at the 3:27 mark that closed out the day's scoring.

JEFF COLBURN added two goals and an assist, while GU got significant contributions from Craig O'Dowd (4-1), Andrew Baird (2-2), and Andrew Brancaccio (2-0).

The Statesmen held a slim 38-37 advantage in shots, while Georgetown dominated ground balls (45-33) and faceoffs (21-10). GU faceoff specialist Christiaan Trunz (20 of 30 at the X) collected a game-high 12 ground balls, while MATT RANAGHAN scooped up seven for Hobart.

The Statesmen converted on their lone extra-man opportunity, while Georgetown was 2-of-5 in man-up situations.

Hoya goalie Miles Kass earned the win with nine saves, while Brandon Baer stopped 10 for Hobart.
