G		Game Day Decision

SERIES SNAPSHOT: The Statesmen and the Stags are squaring off for the third time this afternoon. Fairfield won the two previous meetings, 11-8 in 2005 and 15-9 last season.

WHEN LAST WE MET: On April 1, 2006, in Fairfield, Mike Bocklett registered seven points to lift the Stags over the Statesmen 15-9. Fairfield broke open a 1-1 game with five unanswered goals spanning the first and second quarters. The Statesmen won nearly every statistical category, except the final score. Hobart outshot Fairfield 49-32, held a 48-33 advantage on ground balls, and was nearly perfect on clears (84%), while riding the Staggs (65% on clears). DAN SPINELLA (8-of-10) and JOHN SODEN (10-of-16) dominated the X.

WOE-VERTIME: Hobart suffered its second overtime loss of the season, when Rutgers overcame a two-goal, fourth quarter deficit to steal a 12-11 ECAC win. Daryl Veltman and Chris David both recorded hat tricks, but it wasn't enough to help the Statesmen avoid the double OT setback. Despite the program's distinguished record of success, Hobart is a surprising 9-23 all-time in overtime.

DEJA VU: On Feb. 18, Hobart suffered a two-goal loss to a top-10 team (#3 Syracuse). One month to the day later, the Statesmen fell by two goals to another top-10 team (#7 Georgetown).

DEJA VU ALL OVER AGAIN: On Feb. 24, Hobart suffered a heartbreaking overtime loss to Bucknell. One month to the day later, the Statesmen fell in double overtime to Rutgers. Could a three overtime contest be in store for the April 24 showdown with Canisius?

EXTRA! EXTRA!: The Statesmen began the week third in the nation in extra-man scoring. They've converted on 56.3 percent (9-16) of their extra-man opportunities this season, including an impressive 5-of-7 showing against Binghamton, the most man-up goals scored by Hobart since March 12, 2005 (5 vs. Ohio St.).

GOAL TIME: In the fastest game on two feet, Hobart is running at the head of the pack in scoring. The Statesmen's 11.80 goals per game is fifth in Division I through games of March 25. Hobart is on pace to score 165 goals this season, the most in a campaign since the program moved to Division I in 1995.

CLEAR DIFFERENCE: In Hobart's three wins this season, the Statesmen are clearing 86.8 percent of the time, while the opposition is successful just 62.2 percent of the time. On the flip side, Hobart's clearing rate slips to 82.0 percent while the opposition improves to 87.1 percent.

CANADIAN CONNECTION: Canadian imports JAMIE KIRK and DARYL VELTMAN have teamed up to score 16 goals this season (14 Veltman from Kirk and 2 Kirk from Veltman). The former high school teammates at the Salisbury School also play together for the Orangeville Northmen in the Ontario Junior A Summer Lacrosse League.

FEEDER PROGRAM: Junior attackman JAMIE KIRK leads the nation with 24 assists. He boasts 52 percent of the team's helpers this season. Kirk posted a season-high seven assists against Bucknell.

RECORD WATCH: Speaking of KIRK, he needs just three assists to break Hobart's Division I record for assists in a season. Kirk has dished out 24 helpers in seven games (3.43/gm). The current mark was established by NATE HILL '05, who set up 26 goals during the 2004 season.

HOT HAND: Junior attackman DARYL VELTMAN leads the ECAC and is third in the nation in goals. He's scored 23 at the midway point of the season, averaging 3.29 per contest.

ON THE LIST: Speaking of Veltman, he was named to the Tewaaron Award preseason watch list. Veltman is the second Statesman to be named to the preseason watch list. Two-time All-American defenseman GREG McCARTHY '05 was the first in 2005.

STREAKY: Three Statesmen enter today's game with significant consecutive game points streaks. DARYL VELTMAN and NICK CURRIE have logged at least one point in 12 consecutive games, while JAMIE KIRK has registered a point in eight straight contests, dating back to his final game as a Catamount.

MOVIN' ON UP: DARYL VELTMAN is quickly climbing Hobart's career scoring charts. Among Division I Statesmen, he's tied for fifth in career points (110), 17 behind No. 4 JARED BEBEE '00; sixth in career goals (73), one shy of No. 5 MIKE CONKLIN '06; and sixth in career assists (36), three behind No. 5 JARED BEBEE '00.

EIGHT IS GREAT: Senior midfielder CHRIS DAVID scored three goals against Rutgers. It's the eighth time in his career that he's netted three or more goals. David enters today's game ninth in career goals (56) among Division I Statesmen. He's one away from No. 8 ERIC CURRY '96.

COLLECTION AGENTS: Hobart has collected a league-high 287 ground balls this season thanks in no small part to MATT SMALLEY and MATT RANAGHAN. Smalley leads the team with 45, while Ranaghan is second with 41. They rank seventh and 10th, respectively, in the nation in ground balls per game.

BAER'S DEN: Senior goalie BRANDON BAER has been tough to beat at home. In four games in Geneva, he has a 6.64 goals against average and a .561 save percentage.

SINGLE DIGITS: When the Hobart defense holds the opposition to nine goals or less, the Statesmen are 29-8 (.784) under Head Coach MATT KERWICK.

FASTEST TO THE MARK: With his first goal of the game against Marist, DARYL VELTMAN became the fastest Hobart player to record 100 career points since the program moved to Division I in 1995. He scored 103 points in his first 32 games as a Statesmen. NATHAN ROOST '98 was the previous standard, recording his 100th point in his 33rd game.

WELCOME TO THE CLUB: Hobart is one of only three collegiate lacrosse programs to reach the 700-win plateau. (Johns Hopkins and Syracuse are the other two.) The Statesmen have an all-time record of 703-409-20 (.630).

COACH K: Head Coach MATT KERWICK is in his sixth season at the helm of his alma mater's lacrosse program. The 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year has a 36-42 record at Hobart and is 88-73 in 11 seasons as a head coach, including three-year stints at Alfred University and Randolph-Macon College. Last summer, Kerwick served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Lacrosse team that earned a silver medal at the ILF World Championship.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION: Hobart has made 25 appearances in the NCAA Tournament (4 Division I, 6 Division II, 15 Division III) and has won 16 national championships (1 USILA, 2 NCAA DII, 13 NCAA DIII). Hobart is one of only two schools to compete in the NCAA Tournament in all three divisions (Cortland State is the other).

ON THE AIR: All of Hobart's lacrosse games are broadcast by WEOS-FM (89.7/90.3 in Geneva, 88.1 in Ithaca). Outside of WEOS's broadcast area, fans can tune into the station's streaming audio online at www.weos.org. Veteran radio man TED BAKER will describe the play-by-play, while MIKE BLACK will provide the color commentary.

SCOUTING THE STAGS: Fairfield brings a 5-1 record to Geneva. The Stags are ranked 17th in the coaches poll, 19th in the media poll. Fairfield is eighth in the nation in scoring offense (11.5 gpg). With 17 goals and 10 assists, Senior attackman Mike Bocklet is third in the nation in points (4.5/g), fourth in goals (2.83), and 20th in assists (1.67). Junior attackman Travis Nelson is second on the team in points (12-13-25), ranking fifth in the nation (4.17 ppg) and sixth in assists (2.17). Sophomore midfielder Chris Ajemian leads the team in ground balls with 23. Senior Michael Kruger has started all six games in goal for a defense allowing just 8.5 goals per game.

#25 Hobart vs #3 Syracuse (Feb 18, 2007 at Syracuse, N.Y.)

Four unanswered goals late in the fourth quarter saved the third-ranked Syracuse lacrosse team from a second straight loss to Hobart. The Orange rallied from an 11-9 hole to post a 13-11 victory in front of 5,252 fans at the Carrier Dome, reclaiming the Kraus-Simmons Trophy.

DARYL VELTMAN and JEFF COLBURN led the Statesmen with two goals and two assists each. Attackman Dan Hardy paced the Orange with three goals and two assists.

NICK CURRIE gave Hobart the early lead, scoring on the game's first shot just 30 seconds in with a laser from the right side of goalie Peter Coluccini (13 saves).

Senior Brandon Baer stopped the first two shots he faced, before Syracuse countered with back-to-back goals. Baer turned in a spectacular first start in the cage, recording 15 saves, including several from point-blank.

It was back and forth affair that saw the lead change hands five times. Colburn's second score with 13:17 remaining put Hobart on top 11-9, but it proved to be the final score of the contest for the Statesmen.

Hobart held an 11-9 advantage on faceoffs entering the fourth quarter, but Syracuse turned things around in the final frame, winning five of six at the X. DAN SPINELLA won 12 of 26 restarts.

The Statesmen had a 38-37 advantage on ground balls, led by MATT SMALLEY and MATTHEW RANAGHAN with seven apiece.

Hobart vs Bucknell (Feb 24, 2007 at Brooklandville, Md.)

Tim Brandau scored with 1:16 remaining in overtime to lift Bucknell to an 11-10 victory over Hobart. Brandau led the Bison with two goals and two assists.

The loss overshadowed several exceptional individual performances. JAMIE KIRK recorded a game-high eight points, the most since DARYL VELTMAN produced eight points at Canisius last season. Kirk dished out seven assists, including four feeds to Veltman, who finished with six goals, the most by a Hobart player since Feb. 23, 2003, when JOHN BOGOSIAN '03 netted six against Butler. Bogosian was also the last Hobart player to hand out seven helpers (March 24, 2001, vs. Lehigh).

DAN SPINELLA dominated the faceoff X, winning 17 of the game's 25 restarts, including all 10 in the second quarter, while MATT SMALLEY collected a game-high 11 ground balls, many of them on faceoffs, leading the Statesmen to a 44-29 advantage in that category. Smalley's total is the most by a Hobart player since TIM BOOTH '03 recorded 11 against Lehigh on March 22, 2003.

Bucknell carried a 9-8 lead into the fourth quarter, but with 12:02 remaining in regulation, the final Kirk to Veltman feed tied the game. Hobart claimed its final lead of the day with 86 seconds remaining when Veltman finished a feed from NICK CURRIE.

The Bison won the ensuing faceoff and evened the match 39 seconds later on Perry Menzies' third goal of the day to set up Brandau's heroics.

Binghamton vs. Hobart (Mar 3, 2007 at Geneva, N.Y.)

Hobart won its home opener, dispatching Binghamton 12-5 on McCooley Field, breaking open a close contest with nine second half goals. Three Statesmen recorded four points. DARYL VELTMAN netted four goals, while JAMIE KIRK dished out four assists and SEAN MURPHY tallied two of each.

Steve Carlson led the Bearcats with two goals and an assist, while Nate Kerstein added a pair of goals as well.

Thanks to an assist from Kirk, Veltman scored the game's opening goal on the extra-man at 11:21. Nine minutes later, Murphy finished a feed from Kirk for a two-goal advantage.

Binghamton won the ensuing faceoff and needed just eight seconds to record its first goal on a shot by Jake Boyce.

Veltman, set up by JEFF COLBURN, made it a 3-1 game with the only goal of the second quarter.

The Statesmen started the third frame with back-to-back scores by NICK CURRIE and Colburn. Carlson interrupted Hobart's flow with his first goal, but the Statesmen responded with consecutive goals by CHRIS DAVID and Murphy.

Binghamton managed back-to-back goals spanning the third and fourth quarters to cut Hobart's lead to 7-4, but, with a behind-the-back shot, Veltman sparked a 4-0 run that put the home team firmly in control.

BRANDON BAER earned the win with eight saves, while MAX SILBERLECHT turned away three shots in relief. Binghamton's Larry Kline made a career-high 16 saves.

For the third straight game, Hobart won the battle for ground balls (40-27). MATT RANAGHAN picked up a game-high seven GBs for the Statesmen. Hobart also enjoyed a strong showing at the faceoff X. DAN SPINELLA won 10 of the 16 restarts he took, helping the Statesmen to a 10-8 advantage.

Hobart vs. Hartford (Mar 10, 2007 at Hartford, Conn.)

The Statesmen raced out to a 5-0 lead and never looked back in a 17-5 triumph over Hartford at Al-Marzook Field. JEFF COLBURN scored a game-high five points (4-1) for the Statesmen.

Hobart dominated every aspect of the contest, outshooting the Hawks 48-28, holding a 52-39 advantage on ground balls, and winning faceoffs 19-7. The Statesmen killed off all five of Hartford's extra-man opportunities and scored on their lone man-advantage. Hobart also rode their hosts relentlessly, as the Hawks were unsuccessful on 12-of-29 clear attempts.

DARYL VELTMAN had three goals and an assist, raising his career total to 99 (65-34). Only five Statesmen have record 100 career points since Hobart moved to Division I in 1995.

The Statesmen also got a goal and two assists apiece from JAMIE KIRK and SEAN MURPHY. Faceoff specialist DAN SPINELLA posted a 14-3 record at the X and collected a team-high six ground balls.

BRANDON BAER earned the win, making nine saves in the first half. MAX SILBERLICHT made two stops in the third quarter, while BRAD HESTER and first-year KEVIN GIBBS combined for four stops in the fourth.

The Hawks sent three goalies into the contest. John McMahon was saddled with the loss after making 12 stops in three quarters.

Daniel Clough scored twice for Hartford.

Colburn scored the game's first two goals, followed by a pair of Veltman tallies. Colburn capped the first quarter scoring with his third goal of the contest. The Hawks got on the board 25 seconds into the second quarter, but the Statesmen netted five of the next six goals to carry a 10-2 lead into halftime.

Hobart cruised through the second half, subbing liberally, and secured its second straight win.

Marist vs. Hobart (Mar 13, 2007 at Geneva, N.Y.)

DARYL VELTMAN recorded the 100th point of his career while leading the Statesmen to a 10-5 victory over Marist on McCooey Field. Veltman netted a pair of goals and set up two more to raise his career total to 103 points.

The junior needed just three and a half minutes and one shot to reach the 100-point plateau in his 32nd career game. He is the fastest of the sixth Division I Statesmen to reach that milestone, beating Nathan Roost '98 by one game.

Hobart outscored the Red Foxes 4-1 in the first quarter and cruised to victory. The Statesmen won all of the major stat categories, outshooting their guests 45-31, collecting more ground balls (43-24), winning more faceoffs (13-6), and clearing at a much higher rate (91.6%-64.2). The Hobart defense was sharp all afternoon, but excelled in man-down situations, killing off all six of Marist's extra-man opportunities.

CHRIS DAVID netted a hat trick for the Statesmen, while JAMIE KIRK handed out three assists. JEFF COLBURN also contributed three points on two goals and an assist.

MATT SMALLEY collected a game-high seven ground balls for Hobart, while MATT RANAGHAN and DAN SPINELLA each picked up six. Spinella dominated the X, winning 12 of the 16 restarts he took.

The Statesmen might have won by a much wider margin if not for Marist goalie Ryan Penner. The sophomore turned back 16 shots and helped his own cause with the second of the Red Foxes' two first-half goals. With Hobart employing a 10-man ride, Penner saw Hobart starter BRANDON BAER (9 saves) stray too far from his cage. Penner launched a shot from his own restraining box that bounced just inside the crease and hopped up just under the cross bar.

Baer played 43 minutes before yielding to BRAD HESTER and MAX SILBERLICHT, who combined for four saves in relief.

Hobart vs. #7 Georgetown (Mar 18, 2007 at Washington, D.C.)

Hobart got a career-high five goals from NICK CURRIE, but it wasn't enough to upset seventh-ranked Georgetown in the nation's capital. The Hoyas got a five-goal performance from midfielder Dan D'Agnes in a 15-13 victory over the Statesmen.

The game was originally scheduled to be played in Geneva on St. Patrick's Day, but a late winter storm forced a 22-hour delay and change of venue.

Hobart trailed 12-10 entering the fourth quarter, but Silver Spring, Md., native CHRIS DAVID (2 gls) and Currie connected on back-to-back unassisted goals to tie the contest for the seventh and final time. Georgetown answered the surge with consecutive scores of its own by D'Agnes and Garrett Wilson to restore the two-goal lead with 9:05 remaining.

DARYL VELTMAN (3 gls) made it a 14-13 game at the 5:49 mark, depositing a feed from classmate JAMIE KIRK, who recorded a game-high six assists.

D'Agnes put the Hoyas back in front by two with an extra-man goal at the 3:27 mark that closed out the day's scoring.

JEFF COLBURN added two goals and an assist, while GU got significant contributions from Craig O'Dowd (4-1), Andrew Baird (2-2), and Andrew Brancaccio (2-0).

The Statesmen held a slim 38-37 advantage in shots, while Georgetown dominated ground balls (45-33) and faceoffs (21-10). GU faceoff specialist Christiaan Trunz (20 of 30 at the X) collected a game-high 12 ground balls, while MATT RANAGHAN scooped up seven for Hobart.

The Statesmen converted on their lone extra-man opportunity, while Georgetown was 2-of-5 in man-up situations.

Hoya goalie Miles Kass earned the win with nine saves, while Brandon Baer stopped 10 for Hobart.

Rutgers vs. Hobart (Mar 24, 2007 at Geneva, N.Y.)

Colin Checcio scored 23 seconds into the second overtime to lift Rutgers to a 12-11 ECAC victory over Hobart.

Hobart won the faceoff to start the second OT, but a quick turnover sent the ball in the other direction. Checcio was able to free himself and put home the game-winner from point-blank range, his game-leading fifth of the day.

DARYL VELTMAN led the Statesmen with three goals and an assist, while CHRIS DAVID added a hat trick of his own. MATT SMALLEY added a pair of goals and grabbed eight ground balls.

For Rutgers, Justin Pennington had two goals and two assists, and won 5-of-6 faceoffs. Michael Hurwitz was 10-of-20 at the X, collected a game-high 10 ground balls, and scored a goal.

Hobart won a wide-open second quarter to carry an 8-5 lead into the break. Smalley netted both of his goals in the stanza, the first on a pass that evaded both its intended target and goalie Peter Pantages. The second barely beat the halftime horn.

Pantages recorded just two saves in the half. He was replaced by Bill Olin at the start of the third quarter. The substitution energized the Scarlet Knights, who outscored Hobart 4-2 in the frame. Olin allowed just three goals and finished with seven saves.

Rutgers scored four of the first five goals of the half, including three unanswered. Checcio sandwiched goals around an extra-man tally by Chris Doctor to tie the game at 9-all.

Hobart netted another buzzer beater to end the third frame, this time WILL HARRINGTON did the honors for his first career goal.

Veltman converted Hobart's lone man-up situation to start the fourth quarter to put the home team in front 11-9, but Doctor and Pennington scored late goals to force OT.

In the first extra period, Rutgers nearly got the win on a shot by Mike Dugan, but an acrobatic save by BRANDON BAER, his ninth stop of the day, smothered the chance. Hobart got off a pair of shots in OT as well, but neither was on frame.
