The Statesmen Nickname

Sports have been played at Hobart College since the 1860s and for the first 70-plus years Hobart teams went without a moniker. Now Hobart College is blessed with an unusual and unique nickname, "The Statesmen."

The origin of Hobart's nickname came innocently enough. The football team was playing the opening game of the 1936 football season on Sept. 26, at Amherst College. The following day, The New York Times published a story describing the scoreless tie that occurred between the two teams. The article begins:

"In the Pratt Field opener today, Hobart and Amherst battled to a scoreless tie before a crowd of 3,000. The defensive play of both teams was superb. Hobart recorded eight first downs to Amherst's nine.

"The statesmen from Geneva received a lucky break in the first period when Wanzo fumbled and Benjamin recovered on Amherst's 40-yard line."

The author of the story referred to Hobart as the statesmen one final time, concluding the story with:

"Snowball and Pagnotta stood out for Amherst, while Bowling and Wright excelled for the statesmen."

And with those two references, Hobart College had a nickname.

The 1936 Hobart "Statesmen"

On Oct. 2, 2004, Hobart added another chapter to the Statesmen story, debuting 'Bart. The mascot was introduced at halftime of the Hobart-WPI football game. Since then, the 7-foot tall mascot has made dozens of appearances at Statesmen sports contests and several other local events.

Since capturing its first National championship in 1972, the Hobart lacrosse program has earned 27 invitations to postseason play. The Statesmen have turned those invites into an amazing 16 national titles.

Hobart's championship collection started when Coach Jerry Schmidt led the Statesmen to the USILA College Division Championship with a 15-12 win over Washington (Md.) College. That 1972 (pictured right) squad was named a Hobart Team of Distinction during a halftime ceremony on April 14, 2007.

The NCAA began sponsoring college level lacrosse championships in 1974, with the Statesmen placing second in the first two before grabbing the golden ring in 1976 and again in 1977.

The Division III Championship began in 1980. The Statesmen won the inaugural title with a 10-8 triumph over Cortland State. Hobart won 12 consecutive Division III titles, including the 1991 championship. After a one-year hiatus, the Statesmen regained the throne in 1993 with a 16-10 victory over Ohio Wesleyan.

Hobart's overall postseason record stands at an impressive 60-11 (.845). Few schools in any NCAA sport can boast of such success.

The 1972 National Champion Statesmen were named a Hobart Team of Distinction on April 14, 2007.

A 1974 graduate of Hobart and a two-time Lacrosse letterman, Jeremy N. Foley will become the 34th recipient of the Hobart College Alumni Association's Medal of Excellence in a ceremony during Lacrosse Lettermen Weekend, April 26-28. He has served the University of Florida since 1976, beginning as a ticket office intern. In 1992 he was appointed Director of Athletics and is now considered one of the best in his field. In all, 12 Gator athletic teams have won national titles under Foley. In 2006-07, a total of 11 teams finished in the top 10 of their respective sports, including five top-five finishes.

When the men's basketball team won the national title in April 2006, Foley became the only Athletic Director in Division I history to direct a program that won national crowns in football and men's basketball in the same year. The following season, the men's basketball team won the national title again, marking the first time a Division I college held both men's titles simultaneously.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women as three women's sports have been added under his tenure—soccer, softball, and most recently, lacrosse.

Foley is equally committed to ensuring academic success for University of Florida's student-athletes. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 66 times as Academic All-Americans, the fourth highest among all Division I institutions since 1992.

Foley was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006 and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame awarded him the 2007 John L. Toner Award.

Statesmen Lacrosse 2008

Chris Keough '07 was a four-year letterwinner, earning the 2006 C.R.A.G. Outstanding Defensive Player Award and the 2007 VanArsdale Award.
