CAROL WEYMULLER

Carol Weymuller enters her seventh season as the head coach of the Hobart squash program. Under her direction the Statesmen have been ranked in the top-20 nationally in each of the past six seasons. She has a career record of 58-64 (.475), and boasts 29 more wins than any other head squash coach in Hobart history.

Last season, the Statesmen finished with a 11-11 mark and ranked 19th in the nation. Hobart reached its highest intercollegiate ranking in each of Weymuller's first two seasons posting a combined 19-19 record while garnering a 13th ranking by the National Intercollegiate Squash Racquets Association.

Weymuller earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish and elementary education from Bethany College in 1970. Upon graduation she worked as a tennis and squash professional at the Heights Casino in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1970 through 1980, followed by a stint at the Genesee Valley Club in Rochester, N.Y., from 1980 through 1993. From 1993 through 1995, she was the squash professional at the University of Rochester Medical Center Athletic Club and the tennis professional at the Country Club of Rochester.

An accomplished player as well, Weymuller was the No. 1 ranked player in New York City from 1976 through 1980. She served as captain of the U.S. Team in 1981 and 1983. She won a record 11-consecutive Rochester Women's Championships from 1981 through 1991.

The Hobart College squash team enters its 35th season looking to build on a respectable 2000-01 campaign. The Statesmen posted an 11-11 mark against some of the nation's top teams and closed out the year ranked 19th by the National Intercollegiate Squash Racquets Association. Hobart graduated four seniors from its starting lineup, including four-year No. 1 Briggs Johnson. Hobart returns two seniors, four juniors, and has been infused by five first-years expected to play in the top nine positions.

Seniors Reed Harwood and Andrew Hunt will lead the team this season as team captains. Junior Angel Magaña, in his second year at Hobart, will strengthen the top third of the lineup. Junior Ryan Gillmore will anchor the middle of the lineup, while classmates Alec Flemming, and Dan Roy provide depth. Sophomore Richard Reutter will be challenging for a top nine starting position. Sophomores Rob Drake, Dan Jacobs, and rookie Jimmie Banta round out the upperclassmen.

SETH SIDITSKY

Seniors Andrew Hunt (above) and Reed Harwood (below) will serve as team captains this year.

Hobart's newcomers are expected to make an immediate impact. First-year Tejvir Rathore is expected to take over the top spot. First-years Henry Clutsam and Cameron Lister are expected to anchor the midsection of the lineup. Freddy Cook and Colman Currie strengthen the lower part of the starting order.

The team opens its fourth season in the Dr. Frank P. Smith Squash Center. Dedicated on Oct. 3, 1998, the Smith Center has five International sized glass backed courts and is one of the finest squash facilities in the region.

The Statesmen face another challenging schedule in 2001-2002, including matches with squash powers Navy and Trinity (Conn.). Matches on the road against Bates, Colby, and Wesleyan will be key in determining Hobart's seed in the Nationals Feb. 22-24 at Harvard.

MEET THE STATESMEN

Jimmie Banta

Sophomore, Westfield, N.J., Wardlaw-Hartridge

Jimmie, a 2000-2001 starter on the Hobart Tennis team, joins the Squash team for the first time in 2001. This season he will learn the finer points of the game in preparation for a playing position in the future.

Henry Clutsam

First-year, New Vernon, N.J., Blair Academy

Clutsam is a strong lefthanded competitor with a good amount of junior squash tournament experience. He is expected to add strength to the middle of the starting lineup.

Freddy Cook

First-year, Greenwich, Conn., St. George's

Cook, along with his first-year classmate Colman Currie, played on St. George's squash team. He is expected to be a solid performer in the starting lineup.

Colman Currie

First-year London, England, St. George's

Currie, one half of Hobart's "St. George's duo," is a player with great upside potential. With continued improvement, Currie could crack the starting lineup.

Rob Drake

Sophomore, Snyder, N.Y., The Nichols School

Drake is expected to be a strong contender for a starting position.

Alec Flemming

Junior, Williamsville, N.Y., Canisius

Flemming joins the Statesmen for the first time in 2001. Prior to coming to Hobart, Flemming played some junior squash. He is physically strong and highly competitive. With hard work and an open mind, he has a shot at cracking the top-10.

Ryan Gillmore

Junior, Pepper Pike, Ohio, Hawken School

Gillmore is expected to play in the middle of the lineup this season. He thrives on competition and will relentlessly run down balls. A two-sport athlete, he also played second singles on the tennis team the past two seasons.

Reed Harwood

Senior, South Dartmouth, Mass., Brooks School

First semester last year Harwood studied in India, then spent the best part of the second semester sidelined with a foot injury. This year Harwood is expected to turn in a solid year in the middle of the starting lineup. He is patient, competitive, a well-conditioned athlete and possesses a deceptive lob and a delicate drop shot.

Andrew Hunt

Senior, Pomfret Center, Conn., Woodstock Academy

Hunt, the tennis team's top singles player during both the 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 seasons, didn't take up squash until arriving at Hobart. He has shown swift continued improvements over the past two seasons and will be contending for a starting position against more seasoned, squash-experienced players.

Dan Jacobs

Sophomore, Shelburne, Vt. Proctor Academy

Jacobs, now in his second year following a big improvement in his first-year, will continue to strive for a starting position

Cameron Lister

First-year, Pittsburgh, Pa., Shady Side Academy

Lister is expected to play in the top third or half of the starting lineup. He came to the junior game somewhat late by today's standard. His attitude, strong work ethic and native talent indicate he will give a very solid performance in his first-year.

Angel Magaña

Junior, San Salvador, El Salvador, Colegio San Francisco

Magaña in his second year of collegiate squash is expected to play in the top three. He is a strong, fit player and has added some touch to his hard-hitting length game.

Tejvir Rathore

First-year, Indore I.P., India, The Daly College Indore

Rathore comes to Hobart rated as high as No. 3 in India junior squash. He is expected to play No. 1 for the Statesmen. He is a masterful player with a rare balance of patience and aggressive shot-making. With a little college squash experience behind him, he is poised for a very successful season at the highly competitive No. 1 position.

Richard Reutter

Sophomore, Annapolis, Md., Woodbury Forest School

Reutter is expected to strengthen the lower end of the Statesmen starting lineup.

Dan Roy

Junior, Cape Elizabeth, Maine, Cape Elizabeth

Roy is studying abroad the first semester. When he returns in January, his dedication, intelligence, and work ethic will go a long way in his quest for a spot in the starting lineup.

The Frank P. Smith Squash Center was dedicated on October 3, 1998, during a ceremony at the Robert A. Bristol Sport and Recreation Center. The five, brand new, international courts reflect the commitment of Hobart and William Smith to the future of the game.

The new courts are wider — 21 feet for international play as opposed to 18.5 feet for the hardball game. The international game uses a softer ball which, according to Smith, makes the points longer and puts a premium on fitness, rather than on shot making. The Colleges switched to the international, or English style of squash because the National Intercollegiate Squash Racquets Association (NISRA) has made that the standard for intercollegiate play.

MARK D. GEARAN

President

Mark D. Gearan, bringing extensive experience in public service and a strong commitment to undergraduate liberal arts education and international studies, became Hobart College's 26th president and the 15th president of William Smith College in August 1999.

When named to that position by the Colleges' trustees, Gearan was serving as director of the U.S. Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., a position he assumed in 1995. His resignation from that post to lead the Colleges garnered not only national headlines, but a flood of personal testimonials and tributes. President Bill Clinton, to whom Gearan reported as Peace Corps director, said, "Mark is gifted, humane, a leader, and deeply committed to the education of young people. I know that he will bring great vision to the Colleges as they enter the next century."

Gearan is one of the country's youngest presidents of a major undergraduate institution. He has extensive credentials in public policy and service including having served at the White House as assistant to the President and director of communications, as well as Deputy Chief of Staff. During the 1992 presidential campaign, he was Vice President Gore's campaign manager and then Deputy Director of President-elect Clinton's transition team.

A native of Gardner, Mass., Gearan earned his B.A. in government cum laude at Harvard University and his law degree from Georgetown University. He's the recipient of 11 honorary degrees. Gearan's writings have been published extensively, including pieces in the Boston Globe, the Miami Herald, and the San Francisco Examiner.

He is married to Mary Herlihy Gearan, and they have two daughters.

CLARENCE BUTLER

Hobart College Dean

Clarence Butler became dean of Hobart College in July, 1998. Butler came to Hobart College in 1979, after serving on the faculties at Brown University and Dartmouth College. He first served as assistant dean, and was named senior associate dean of Hobart in 1983, after serving as acting dean of the College from 1982 until 1983.

Butler has been very active at the College, serving on many committees, including the Committee on Standards, the Individual Major Committee, and the President's Advisory Council. Aside from his administrative duties, Butler has taught German part-time and, as an ordained minister, has at times served the local community in that capacity as well.

Butler received the B.A. and the Ph.D. from Washington University in St. Louis, the M.A. from the University of Kansas, and the B.D. from the Episcopal Theological School. He also received a language diploma from the University of Stockholm in Sweden. He is a former Fulbright Scholar as well as a DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Scholar.

He has two daughters, Britta and Kirsten.

MIKE HANNA '68

A 1968 graduate of Hobart, Mike Hanna became the College's athletics director in 1981. He has piloted the program to new heights through unprecedented championships in lacrosse, to today's department-wide success.

Hanna's vision, along with the vision of his William Smith counterpart, has led to the construction of the Robert A. Bristol '31 Field House in 1989 and the Dr. Frank P. Smith '36 Squash Center in 1998. Additionally, the new millennium has seen considerable improvements to the campus's facilities: the 2001

Artificial Turf Stadium, John H. Cozzens, Jr. '41 Memorial Field, the Topichak Team Rooms in the Elliott Varsity House, the Ford Team Room in Bristol Gym, and the Hobart Hockey Varsity House at the Geneva Recreation Complex.

An active member of the community, Hanna serves in a variety of civic positions. He's currently a member of the Policy Council for Geneva Head Start and is a past president of the Geneva Rotary Club. For more than 10 years he has co-chaired the Geneva Rotary Club Student Loan Program. He's also a trustee for The Savings Bank of the Finger Lakes.

Hanna's first stop in his athletic career was in 1971-72 at Johns Hopkins University where he served as defensive coordinator in football and as an assistant lacrosse coach under the Blue Jays' legendary coach, Bob Scott. The following year Hanna joined the staff at the U.S. Naval Academy, serving as the offensive coordinator for the Midshipmen lacrosse program through the 1976 season. Hanna returned to his alma mater from Princeton University, where he served as head lacrosse coach from 1977 through 1981. He has been involved in college athletics since his discharge from the U.S. Army. He was an Army paratrooper and an officer in military intelligence, including a one-year tour as a military intelligence advisor in South Vietnam.

As a quarterback, Hanna broke all of Hobart's season and career passing records during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. A second-team All-American lacrosse attackman in 1968, Hanna finished second for the Statesmen in scoring that year with 70 points. He co-captained both the football and lacrosse teams his senior year. During his senior year he was awarded the Francis L. "Babe" Kraus Award as Hobart's Athlete of the Year and also earned the Judge Kane Award as MVP in lacrosse.

A past president of both the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association and the U.S. Lacrosse Coaches Association, Hanna chaired the Coaches Association Clinic and Convention Committee for 10 years and currently co-chairs the USILA Scholar All-American Committee. In 1981, he authored the book, Lacrosse: Skills and Strategies for the Athlete and Coach. The USILA recognized Hanna in 1985 with the Frenchy Julian Memorial Award for outstanding service to intercollegiate lacrosse.

Hanna resides in Geneva with his wife, Mary Anne, a second grade teacher at Geneva's West Street Elementary School. They have three children: Katie, information technology manager with Harris, Beach, & Wilcox in Rochester, N.Y.; Molly, a graduate of William Smith and a graduate student at Lesley University; and Matt, a senior at The Johns Hopkins University.

Hobart and William Smith Colleges are private, coordinate, liberal arts colleges in Geneva, N.Y. Hobart College was founded in 1822, William Smith College in 1908. Hobart enrolls 863 men and William Smith 980 women. The full-time equivalent teaching faculty numbers 155 members, 98 percent of whom hold doctoral degrees.

The two colleges have the same faculty; men and women attend classes together and use the same library and laboratories. Each college, however, awards its own degrees, has its own dean, and maintains its own student government and athletics programs.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

At the Colleges, the academic year is divided into two 15-week semesters. Students take four courses each term, eight per year, for either a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree. The academic program traditionally comprises four years.

Majors are available in American studies, anthropology, art, biology, biochemistry, chemistry, classics, comparative literature, computer science, economics, English, geoscience, Greek, history, Latin, mathematics, modern languages (French and Spanish), music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, religious studies, and sociology.

Individual majors may be developed in Asian studies, Africana/Latino studies, urban studies, and women's studies, among others. In addition, the Colleges offer programs leading to provisional certification in elementary and secondary education.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Hobart College Department of Athletics believes intercollegiate athletics play a major role in the educational process, and strives to provide a challenging, meaningful, and exciting experience for student athletes. The Department accomplishes this mission by serving as teachers, counselors, leaders, and representatives of the College and by offering quality instruction, services, and athletics facilities while promoting a high level of sportsmanship and competition.

The coaching and support staffs place the highest value on:

- Commitment
- Integrity
- Loyalty
- Respect
- Teamwork

In carrying out its mission, the department will strengthen the ability of Hobart men to manage their lives and fulfill their potential as students, athletes, and citizens.
