COACHES/ROSTER

HEAD COACH CAROL WEYMULLER

Carol Weymuller enters her 10th season as the head coach of the Hobart tennis program. In 2003-04 the Statesmen posted program-best 17-3 mark and captured the Liberty League Championship. The U.S. Professional Tennis Association honored Weymuller in 2002 with its Tex Schwab Lifetime Achievement Award.

Weymuller earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish and elementary education from Bethany College in 1970. Upon graduation, she worked as a tennis and squash professional at the Heights Casino in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1970 through 1980, followed by a stint at the Genesee Valley Club in Rochester, N.Y., from 1980 through 1993. From 1993 through 1995, she was the squash professional at the University of Rochester Medical Center Athletic Club and the tennis professional at the Country Club of Rochester.

As a tennis player, Weymuller was a four-year member of the men's varsity team at Bethany. She helped the Bison win conference championships in 1967 and 1968 and appeared in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd." As a junior player, she was nationally ranked as high as fifth and won the Orange Bowl championship three times. In 1968, she was on the Junior Wightman Cup Team and played in the first U.S. Open at Forest Hills. The following year, she was co-ranked as the No. 1 woman in New England. In 1973, Weymuller won the USPTA National Singles Championship.

ASSISTANT COACH RICH LENHART

Since the 1998-99 season, Rich Lenhart has served the Hobart tennis program as an assistant coach.

Lenhart holds a bachelor's degree from the State University of New York at Oswego and a master's degree from Shenandoah (Va.) University. Since 1986, he's taught mathematics and computers at St. Michael School in Newark, N.Y. In addition, he's currently head of the tennis programs for the Geneva Recreation Department.

A former Newark High School Section V Class B doubles champion, Lenhart co-captained the 1984 Oswego State men's tennis team. He's active in local doubles tournament competition, and is a resident of Newark, N.Y.

SEASON OUTLOOK/RESULTS

One year removed from one of its best seasons ever, the Hobart tennis team enters the 2004-05 season with high expectations and a confidence that it can surpass that success.

Under the guidance of Head Coach Carol Weymuller, the Statesmen reached new heights in 2004, capturing the Liberty League tennis title for the first time in eight years and recording a program-record 17 wins.

Returning four of its top six players, including the 2004 Liberty League Co-Player of the Year in Peter Piné, Hobart has the necessary tools to win its second straight league crown.

Hobart's top player the past four seasons, Piné will start the year ranked 17th in the Northeast Region after posting a 20-6 record last year.

Junior Adam Raffa and sophomore Matt Silver will man the second and third spots after compiling 15-1 and 17-5 records, respectively, and earning spots on the All-Liberty League Singles team.

The remaining three spots are less certain for Hobart. First-years Charlie Davis and Nick Raho will battle between the fourth and fifth positions, while sophomore Matt Jacobus could round out the top six.

Sophomore Mike Klein and junior Derrick Moore also have the potential to step up into the starting six.

KEVIN COLTON/SPORTS/CSNET

Junior Adam Raffa will move up to No. 2 singles after posting a 15-1 record at No. 3 last year.

Although not returning any of its doubles pairs, the Statesmen have a solid corps of players with good experience.

Piné and Raffa will team up at No. 1, while Silver and Raho look to be the best combination for the second position. Piné and Raffa could be one of the top duos in the league and will start the year ranked 13th in the region.

The third doubles spot has a few potential winning combinations for the Statesmen. Davis and Jacobus could join forces, while Moore and Klein also will be in the mix to earn match experience.

*Liberty League Tournament match

MEET THE STATESMEN

DERRICK MOORE

SR, Deerfield, N.Y., Whitesboro

The consummate team player, Moore will anchor the bottom half of the Statesmen's singles lineup this season. A dedicated worker on the court, he has improved his game over the past three seasons and will be looked to to pull out tough matches.

PETER PINÉ

SR, Princeton, N.J., Princeton

Hobart's top player the past three seasons, Piné was named the Liberty League Player of the Year in 2004. Posting a 20-6 record in singles and a 19-8 mark in doubles last season, he needs just 18 wins to surpass the Hobart career wins record. He is 58-18 for his career.

GARETT ROSATI

SR, Camillus, N.Y., West Genesee

Joining the Statesmen for his senior year, Rosati will spend the early parts of the season adapting to the power and pace of the college game.

MATTHEW JACOBUS

JR, South Burlington, Vt., South Burlington

Finishing the last nine matches in 2003-04 with a 6-3 record, Jacobus looks to build on that success this year. Splitting his time between fifth and sixth singles, he will compete for the No. 4 spot and also will be in the hunt to play third doubles.

ADAM RAFFA

JR, Concord, Mass., Concord-Carlisle

Posting a 15-1 record at No. 3 and earning All-Liberty League recognition, Raffa was a major part of the Statesmen's success in 2003-04. A talented shot maker, he will move up to the No. 2 singles spot and first doubles for the Statesmen this season.

MEET THE STATESMEN

JED STUART

JR, Queensbury, N.Y., Gunnery School

Stuart could see more court time after showing improvement throughout his sophomore season and during the off-season.

MIKE KLEIN

SO, Chappaqua, N.Y., Horace Greeley

Klein posted a 4-4 record in his rookie season, including a 4-2 mark in dual matches. Possessing the potential to earn a consistent starting role in 2004-05, he will vie for a spot at sixth singles or third doubles.

MATT SILVER

SO, Weston, Conn., Weston

The Statesmen's top rookie in 2003-04, Silver posted an impressive 17-5 record and earned All-Liberty League recognition. Armed with an array of shots, Silver will move up to third singles and second doubles this year.

FACILITIES

THE HWS TENNIS CENTER

SETH SUTSKY

The HWS Tennis Center provides the Colleges' community with eight lighted courts.

RFK VARSITY STRENGTH TRAINING CENTER

BRISTOL FIELD HOUSE

The Robert A. Bristol '31 Field House (right) has space for five tennis courts, providing the Statesmen with a year-round training site. An exceptional multipurpose facility, the Bristol Field House also accommodates intramural basketball, track meets, and full-field training space for the Colleges' outdoor sports.

ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT
MARK D.
GEARAN

Mark D. Gearan is a college president whose life exemplifies the strongest attributes of Hobart and

William Smith Colleges: civic engagement, global awareness, a focus on the 21st century and a commitment to students.

When named president in 1999, President Gearan was serving as director of the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., a post he assumed in 1995. Prior to his Peace Corps directorship, he served at the White House as Assistant to the President, Director of Communications, and Deputy Chief of Staff.

A native of Gardner, Mass., President Gearan earned a bachelor's degree in government cum laude at Harvard University and a law degree from Georgetown University. He is also the recipient of several honorary degrees. President Gearan was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve on the board of the Corporation for National and Community Service, and was appointed to the national board of The Partnership of Public Service. He also serves on the board of the National Campus Compact and co-chairs the New York Campus Compact Executive Committee.

HOBART
BUTLER

Clarence E. Butler became dean of Hobart College in July 1998. Butler came to Hobart in 1979, after serving on the faculties at Brown University and Dartmouth College. He first was named assistant dean, then senior associate dean in 1983, after serving for two years as acting dean of the College.

Butler has served on many committees, including the Committee on Standards, Individual Major Committee, and President's Advisory Council. Aside from his administrative duties, Butler has taught German part time and, as an Episcopal priest, has at times served the local community in that capacity as well.

Butler received bachelor's and doctoral degrees from Washington University in St. Louis, a master's from the University of Kansas, and a bachelor of divinity degree from the Episcopal Theological School. He also received a language diploma from the University of Stockholm in Sweden. He is a former Fulbright Scholar and DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Scholar.

HOBART DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MIKE HANNA '68

A 1968 graduate of Hobart, Mike Hanna became the College's athletics director in 1981. He has piloted the athletics program through unprecedented championships in lacrosse to today's department-wide success. His vision, along with that of his William Smith counterpart, led to the construction of the Robert A. Bristol '31 Field House in 1989 and the Dr. Frank P. Smith '36 Squash Center in 1998. Improvements in the new millennium under his tenure include the Bozzuto Boathouse, McCooey Field, Cozzens Field, the RFK Strength Training Center, the Topichak

Team Rooms in the Elliott Varsity House, the Tom Poole Team Room for Hobart Soccer, and the Bob Ford Team Room for basketball.

As a quarterback, Hanna broke all of Hobart's season and career passing records during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. A second-team All-American lacrosse attackman in 1968, Hanna finished second for the Statesmen in scoring that year with 35 goals and 35 assists. He co-captained both the football and lacrosse teams his senior year.

ABOUT HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH

Hobart and William Smith Colleges are private, coordinate, liberal-arts colleges in Geneva, N.Y. Hobart College was founded in 1822, William Smith College in 1908. Hobart enrolls 835 men and William Smith 1,005 women. The full-time equivalent teaching faculty numbers 174 members, 98 percent of whom hold doctoral degrees.

The two colleges have the same faculty; men and women students attend classes together and use the same library and laboratories. Each college, however, awards its own degrees, has its own dean and admissions office, and maintains its own student government and athletics programs.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

At the Colleges, the academic year is divided into two 15-week semesters. Students take four courses each term, eight per year, for either a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree. The academic program traditionally comprises four years.

Majors are available in American studies, anthropology, art, biology, biochemistry, chemistry, classics, comparative literature, computer science, economics, English, geoscience, Greek, history, Latin, mathematics, modern languages (French and Spanish), music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, religious studies and sociology.

Individual majors may be developed in Asian studies, Africana/Latino studies, urban studies and women's studies, among others. In addition, the Colleges offer a master's degree in teaching.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Hobart College Department of Athletics believes that intercollegiate athletics play a major role in the educational process, and strives to provide a challenging, meaningful and exciting experience for student-athletes. The Department accomplishes this mission by serving as teachers, counselors, leaders and representatives of the College and by offering quality instruction, services and athletics facilities while promoting a high level of sportsmanship and competition.

The coaching and support staffs place the highest value on:

- Commitment
- Integrity
- Loyalty
- Respect
- Teamwork

In carrying out its mission, the department will strengthen the ability of Hobart men to manage their lives and fulfill their potential as students, athletes, and citizens.

ATHLETICS PROGRAM

The Hobart Statesmen, whose colors are royal purple and orange, field intercollegiate teams in 11 sports, including basketball, crew, cross country, golf, football, ice hockey, lacrosse, sailing, soccer, squash and tennis.

Hobart is a member of the Liberty League, the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), and Divisions III and I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).
